Polish holiday workshop offered

Henry Ford Community College's Center for Lifelong Learning will offer a workshop titled "Enjoy Polish Christmas Traditions," which will be led by Donald Samul, an educator who has traveled to Poland many times and publishes "The Polish American Calendar."

In the two-session class, students will learn about the culture and culinary traditions of Poland's Christmas celebrations. The first night will consist of a presentation and slide show and include a display of Christmas artifacts from Poland. The class will travel to Hamtramck the following Saturday for a traditional Christmas dinner (wigilia), served at one of the most noted Polish restaurants in the area.

Both sessions will begin at HFCC's Dearborn Heights Center, at 22568 Ann Arbor Trail between Warren and Outer Drive. The first session will be held 6:30-9 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30, and the second session will be held 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 4. The course fee is $35 for Dearborn school district residents and $39 for all others.

For more information, e-mail the center at CL2-4life@hfcc.net, or visit HFCC on the World Wide Web at www.hfcc.net.

Salon to host Halloween costume contest

Village Hidden Treasures & Village Clippers Salon, 33245 Grand River in downtown Farmington, will host a Halloween Costume Contest Oct. 29-31.
