Does Anyone Sin Anymore?

It seems that we don't hear much about sinning anymore and whenever we do commit sin, we usually can manage to come up with some good excuses for our actions. God's laws are unchanging; however, things that were wrong and frowned upon a few years ago, have now apparently become acceptable for some people in our society.

Although a person normally knows when they have sinned, at times it is hard to admit, even to ourselves, that we may have done something wrong. The good news is that regardless of whether we make good or bad choices in our lives, God still loves us, and the Bible tells us that we all have sinned.

In Romans, chapter eight, we are told that there is no condemnation now for those who live in union with Christ Jesus.

This does not indicate that we should continue to sin, but rather,

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
R.S.V. 1 John 1:9
