Soccer from C1

"On the one (good) shot they had, the kid received the ball, turned and fired. He caught (North goalie) Mike (Buchwald) on his heels a little bit and put the ball in the net." Horr broke a scoreless tie midway in the first half when he stole the ball from an unaware defender after a throw-in, shot the ball, got the rebound and fired again, scoring on the second chance. North led 2-0 at halftime when Shumer intercepted the ball, dribbled past three players and sent the ball up to Gabriel, who took on three players and put a low shot in the lower right corner. "I don't know if the goalie didn't see it, but he made no effort to stop the ball," Moteyer said. Horr scored again midway in the second half with an assist from Andrew Hathaway, who made a heel pass behind him to Horr, who one-timed the ball into the net. After the Patriots got their only goal from Jeremy Bruckner, Gabriel took a cross from Horr in the box and scored from seven yards to make it 4-1, and Horr finished the scoring with an assist from Bob Kerwin. The Raiders outshot the Patriots 17-5 and had a 6-0 advantage in corner kicks. Following a scoreless first half with Mott, another Horr-from-Hathaway combination put North on the scoreboard. Horr lifted a shot from four yards over the keeper's head. "The goalie charged at him, and he chipped it over him," Moteyer said. Hathaway assisted on the second goal, too, by Jeff Shumer. Hathaway drew the goalie to him on the right side and centered the ball to Shumer, who scored on a diving header. "Our defense once again kept us in the game until the offense figured out a way to score," Moteyer said. "It takes a while to figure it out, but the kids eventually do." Horr is North's leading scorer with 16 goals and 13 assists. Hathaway has 13 assists to go with eight goals. Gabriel has scored six goals and Gjon Djokaj three. Falcons defeat Mustangs Following a scoreless first half Monday, Jeff Frederick's goal in the 68th minute gave Farmington a 1-0 victory over visiting Northville in a WIAA crossover game. The ball was sent into the box but was cleared. The rebound went to Justin Gerwatowski, who passed to Frederick and earned an assist on the play. Frederick one-touched the ball and shot it from 30 yards. "It was a perfect shot right over the goalie into the net," Farmington coach Luke Juncj said. Farmington goalkeeper Matt Gnaparski made 10 saves. The Falcons also fired 10 shots at the Northville goal. The Falcons (10-7) won the season series with the Mustangs, who won the previous meeting, 3-2. Farmington beat Northville in the Country Day Invitational at the start of the season, 2-1. "In the first half, they controlled play for the most part," Juncj said. "They had more scoring chances than us. They were the better team the first half, but the second half we were definitely the better team. "We had only one goal, but we had some great scoring chances to make it 2- or 3-0. Defensively, we played a very good game and one goal was enough for us to get the victory tonight." Farmington ends the regular season Friday with a home game against South Lyon. In a district tournament open on Monday, Farmington plays at Farmington Harrison at 7 p.m. The winner will play North Farmington on Wednesday.
