Seeing fullback Cody Cargill and the rest of the Wallied Lake Western football team, and a point to prove Friday in a Division 1 playoff against visiting South Lyon.

The South Lyon Observer said his didn't have any big-play players, said Cargill, who scored three touchdowns and finished with 147 yards on 21 carries. "We wanted to show them we did."

Did they ever.

The Warriors (10-0) came up with the big plays on offense and special teams, and the stingy Western defense did the rest as the Warriors posted a 28-16 win over the Lions (7-3) before a standing-room-only crowd at Western. The win sends Western into the district championship game against the Detroit Catholic Central-Livonia Stevenson winner.

After South Lyon tied the game at 7-7 early in the second quarter, it took the Warriors just two big plays to regain the lead.

Junior Tim King returned the ensuing kickoff 31 yards, and Cargill broke the first play from scrimmage for a 64-yard touchdown. Ainn Mukhar nailed the first of four PAT to give the Warriors a 14-7 lead.

"I ran a sweep and I got a couple good blocks on the runner," Cargill said. "I broke a tackle and then it was off to the races."

With time running out in the half, Western's defense stalled the Lions and forced them to punt from deep in their own zone. Senior Dave Merandi fielded the punt at the 20-yard line and sprinted 60 yards to paydirt for a 21-7 lead. South Lyon's Nick Younce kicked a 37-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the half as the Lions pulled to within 21-10.

Younce added a 20-yard field goal in the third and split the uprisings from 44 yards with 5:43 to play in the game as South Lyon made 21-16.

But Western again came up with the big plays and sealed the win with 3:10 left to play.

Senior James Egan, who South Lyon's ensuing kickoff 52 yards to the Lions' 28. With his team facing third-and-9, Western's senior quarterback Chris Paken tucked the ball on a broken pass play and picked up a first down with a 19-yard run. Three plays later Cargill punched it in from 1-yard out and Mukhar's PAT kick gave the Warriors their final margin of victory.

Senior defensive back Lorenzo Parker set up Western's first touchdown when he picked off a pass by South Lyon junior quarterback Scott Stoinowski and returned it 20 yards to the Lions' 20-yard line. Cargill ran the ball all three plays of the following drive and scored on a 1-yard plunge with a great second effort.

Western's answering defense, led by senior linemen DeLoe Seman and Bob Pisha, kept the Lions in check throughout most of the game. After South Lyon's senior tailback Marcus Schulmeister scored in a 35-yard run early in the second quarter the Lions were limited to three field goals the rest of the way. Western recovered 10 fumbles for lost, one sack, and held the Lions to a mere 64 yards of offense in the second half.

"They were a trapping team and (defensive) coach (Bill) Brenner said to take the trap away and that's 90 percent of their offense," Seman said. "Our linemeners filled the gaps and the D-line played like one big family."

Trojans

back Scott Stoinowski (6-of-9 for 101 yards), kept it on the ground in the second.

Kyle Murphy rushed for 133 yards on 23 carries and Shadley had 175 yards on 17 carries.

"The offensive line made huge holes for me," Shadley said. "Anyone could have ran through those."

"It was an outpouring of offense for both teams," Clinton coach Scott McVitt said. "Either team deserved to win, we were very fortunate to come out on top."

Clinton (6-4) recovered a

Clarencaville fumble on the Trojan 55 in the first quarter.

Stoinowski threw a 20-yard pass to Shadley for a touchdown. With 2:53 left in the first quarter, they recovered another fumble on the first play, Shadley sprinted 32 yards for a score.

McComb scores 36 for North

Samantha McComb outscored the entire Westwood team. Glenn Harrison divided up the offense again, putting three players in double figures. Emily Jackson scored 14 points, Kelly Taylor and Maggie Conden 11 apiece.

Avana Richmond tossed in eight points, Gayle Terres (six steals) seven and Katelyn Knutson five.

"It's the second game in a row we've had real balanced scoring, which is a real positive," Harrison coach Pete Mantyla said.

"At this time of year, we need to play well, play together, play a lot of kids and ride the players who are playing well."

The Patriots (8-9) had the game's high scorer in Tera Morini, who had 17 points. Franklin is 5-6 in the WLLA (seventh place) and will play at Northville in a playoff opener.

STEVENSON 62, FARMINGTON 23: The Spartans got back within shouting distance of .500 Thursday by beating the host Falcons.

Livonia Stevenson finished 5-6 in the WLLA; Farmington dropped to 2-9 in the league.

Katie Bozjoon paced Stevenson with 12 points, but Lindsey Gustick and Katie King were right behind with 11 each. Melonie Leaga added eight.

The Spartans (7-8) started out with an 18-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Falcons played them even, 17-17, in the second. A 15-6 start to the second half put the game away.

Sophomore Julie Himmel had 13 points and 10 rebounds for the Falcons (3-14). Junior Danielle Lewis had 12 points and six rebounds.

"I take responsibility for the last two games," Farmington coach Scott Lowe said, adding the Falcons have regressed.

"I take responsibility for the kids I'm letting play, and we'll have to make some changes. We have to get back to playing hard and doing the things we need to do."

"I know we're not at a strong program but, at least, we were competing when we were losing games and I take responsibility."

BASKETBALL

and was making great reads."

McComb made nine defense and four trips, and she was 6-10 shooting free throws. She also had an amazing 18 rebounds, as well as four assists, four blocks and two assists.

"We knew coming in Samantha was going to score her share of points," Glenn coach Joel Lloyd said. "We just couldn't limit her. She got rebounds for easy baskets, and that really hurt us."

Staci Russell added nine points, four rebounds and four steals. Colwyn supported McComb's effort on the boards with a strong game of her own, hauling down 12 rebounds to go with three points, three steals and three assists.

"Other kids were doing great things, but everybody contributed," Perkins said. "Meghan Callahan had five rebounds, and those were crucial. We did a better job of rebounding and executing offensively."

LaToya Chandler was the only Glenn player in double figures with 14 points. Stephanie Crews added seven points, Bianca Woods and Samantha Crews six each.

North made eight of 16 free throws; Glenn 6-5 in the WLLA, 9-8 overall) sank five of nine.

HARRISON 62, FRANKLIN 42: The Hawks put the Patriots in a hole in the first quarter Thursday, and Farmington never let Livonia Franklin get out.

Harrison jumped on host Franklin for a 20-9, first-quarter score and expanded its lead to 38-20 at the half in easing its way to its 12th victory in 17 games.

The fourth place Hawks finished 8-3 in the WLLA and will play host to North Farmington in a first-round playoff game Tuesday.
