Area bowlers strike gold in National Senior Olympics

Over 12,000 participants, age 50 and up, from across the U.S. competed recently in the National Senior Olympics in Orlando, Florida.

The participants were all medal winners in their events from their home states, progressing to the nationals with a starting field of 250,000 senior athletes.

Bowling is one of the many sports which include softball, basketball, tennis, archery, [illegible] track & field, triathlon, race walking, etc.

In the bowling events last week, Bill Punko and Mary [illegible] of Livonia each won gold medals. Phil [illegible] and [illegible] of West Bloomfield each won silver medals, while Scotty [illegible] and Lloyd [illegible] of the Detroit area also took home gold medals in bowling.

The Senior Olympics was the largest multi-sports event in the USA in 1999. The opening ceremonies included a [illegible] parade at Disney's Wide World of Sports, very similar in many ways to the Olympics which we see every four years on TV.

"It was a great thrill and very exciting to be a part of the medal ceremonies with a big crowd, I was really touched," Punko said. "When you consider that only about five percent of the original entrants get to qualify, this is quite an honor and a moment to remember."

•[illegible] Valley, California has become the third person in American Bowling Congress history to roll a [illegible] Sept. 18 in a [illegible].

[illegible]

There are ninety-five bowlers [illegible] in a row, as late as it. [illegible] Jeremy Sonnenfeld and Tony [illegible] as the only bowlers ever to roll an ABC sanctioned 900 series.

•There is a really good article on women's bowling in the November issue of Women's Health & Fitness magazine (page [illegible]).

It's free and available at several places in the area including most hospital lobbies, Barnes & Noble and Borders bookstores, [illegible] stores, YMCA, YWCA, [illegible] bagel shops, coffee shops and some doctors offices.

I'd like to hang out around Monday nights at Cloverlanes in Livonia when the All Star Bowlerettes are in action. This is the highest level of women's bowling competition anywhere.

Last Monday was a special treat.

A former teammate, Westland's Tina Barber-Judy, rolled 12 in a row, but did not get a 300 game out of it. She finished the second game with six straight strikes and started the third with the first nine.

Barber-Judy finished with a 279, tied with Angela Wilt, another Westlander, for the third game jackpot.

•Chris Klezinski of Westland finished third in the latest round of the Budweiser Michigan Majors tournaments held recently at [illegible] Lanes in Grand Rapids.

Klezinski defeated Billy [illegible] 224-199 to reach the final match against Ray Eddy III of Saginaw.

Eddy closed with four strikes to edge out Klezinski, [illegible], for the title.

Arnie Goldman finished second.

The next stop on the MMBA schedule Saturday-Sunday, Nov. 20-21 at Cherry Hill Lanes in Dearborn Heights for 32nd annual championship event.

•Entry forms are out on the counters at most local bowling centers for the new scratch tournament monthly series put on by the Blue Ribbon Group of independent bowling centers.

The kick-off event will be Saturday, Nov. 13 at Mayflower Lanes in Redford. It is limited to 217-and-under in average with a first place prize of $2,000.

For more information, call Mayflower Lanes [illegible].

[illegible]

The $21 entry fee includes three games of bowling [illegible] strike [illegible].

Also included in the entry fee is three high game jackpots (handicapped) and two mystery games.

One ticket will be [illegible] for every eight entries [illegible].

[illegible]

For more information call (734) [illegible].
