

POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

The following are police and fire reports made during the past week in Farmington and Farmington Hills.

BRIEFING

Farmington Hills:

Someone stole a CD player after breaking into a 1990 Ford Probe parked at Total Gas on the 24200 block of Middlebelt Nov. 6.

Thieves broke the driver's side window and stole a jacket from a 1994 Ford Econoline parked on the 37600 block of Hills Tech between Nov. 5-6, causing $100 damage.

THEFTS

Farmington Hills:

Several wallets were reported stolen from lockers at the Farmington Hills Ice Arena on Eight Mile Nov. 7.

A speaker and an amp were stolen from a 1991 Chevrolet Lumina parked on the 28000 block of David between Nov. 5-7.

CRACKING DRIVING

Farmington Hills:

Police arrested a Farmington Hills woman, 54, for drunken driving on eastbound Grand River near Inkster and Eight Mile around 12:20 a.m. Nov. 7. Authorities stopped the 1997 Pontiac Bonneville after seeing it weave. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .10 percent. It is illegal to drive with a blood alcohol level of .10 percent level or higher. Police also arrested a passenger, a Redford Township man, 34, for an outstanding warrant.

Police arrested a Livonia woman, 56, for drunken driving on M-5 and Orchard Lake at 10:45 a.m. Nov. 6. Police stopped the 1990 Pontiac Grand Am after it hit the median curb twice. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .20 percent.

ARSON

Farmington Hills:

An 8 year old is suspected of starting a dumpster fire outside Gateway Apartments on Middlebelt and 12 Mile Nov. 7. Firefighters put out the fire, which was started with an unknown flammable liquid, reports said. The mother of the boy told police her son came home and said he was "scared." The boy told police he poured a liquid into the dumpster then threw a disposable lighter inside.

DEER INJURED

Farmington Hills:

Police shot a deer twice after the animal sustained serious injuries after being hit by a car on Northwestern Highway Nov. 7. A woman at the scene was upset with how police intended to put the deer out of its misery. For her best interests, she was asked to leave the area.

MARIJUANA FOUND

Farmington Hills:

An unknown person turned in a woman's purse that had 16 grams of marijuana inside at Kmart on Orchard Lake Nov. 7. Rolling papers and a pipe were also found inside the purse along with a voter ID card belonging to a West Bloomfield woman.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Farmington Hills:

Police had to use freeze spray to wrestle down a Redford man, 25, after he threatened an officer who tried to question him about a domestic assault on Bycroft Street Nov. 7. The man, who had a cut on his forehead and his shirt on backwards, clenched both fists after being ordered to turn around. At the station, the man tried to kick officers. He had been drinking, police reports said.

CRACK COCAINE

Farmington Hills:

Police arrested a passenger, a Southfield woman, 24, for crack cocaine possession during a traffic stop on Orchard Lake and Grand River Nov. 6. Authorities stopped the 1988 Plymouth Horizon for speeding. The driver had an outstanding warrant out of Detroit. When officers asked if there were any narcotics in the car, the driver said his passenger had a rock of crack cocaine in her cigarette pack.

BURGLARY

Farmington Hills:

A belt stender, sabsersaw and laser were stolen after someone broke in through the back door at Kirco Construction Corp. on Orchard Lake Nov. 6.

VANDALISM

Farmington Hills:

Someone broke a picture window with an unknown object on the 29500 Hemlock Nov. 6.

SHOPLIFTING

Farmington Hills:

A man walked out with nearly $300 worth of saw blades from HA Smith Lumber on Grand River Nov. 6.

DOMESTIC ASSAULT

Farmington Hills:

Police arrested a Hills man, 23, at his 10 Mile Road home after a woman said he busted her windshield and stole two speakers from her car on Whitlock Nov. 6. The couple is separated and has a child. An argument ensued over the speakers when the man pushed the woman away.

He then used his fist to break the car's windshield before driving off. Police confronted the man at his home but he ran inside and hid.

The man's father let police into the home.
