Human and Divine Guidance
At some time or another, everyone needs guidance. Corporate leaders of large companies, and even the president of the United States, have many advisers whom they seek when they need direction. Of course, regardless of the advice they receive, the responsibility and final decision are theirs, and they are usually held accountable for the outcome.
Seeking wise counsel and advice, along with prayer and guidance from scripture, is always a good way to deal with decisions that are a part of daily living. Many great presidents of our country, such as George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, were known to pray for guidance whenever they were faced with troubling issues. Asking ourselves, how would God want me to deal with this situation, and staying in His will, should help us to have peace of mind. Whatever our position in life, we should seek both human and divine guidance, and Psalm 23 tells us that God will guide us in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;
I have led thee in right paths.
K.J.V. Proverbs 4:11
