THE MAN WHO WINS

The man who wins is the average man,
Not built on any particular plan,
Not blest with any particular luck,
Just steady and earnest and full of pluck.—Barrett.

Isn't this an inspiring thought? The men who win are the average men, like you and I, and the men we rub elbows with in the shop, the store, the factory and on the farm! Just average men! Men with a mission and a purpose! The mission to make for themselves an honorable place in the world in which they live; the purpose to fulfill the obligations of life. Is there any obligation greater than that of making provision for age and dependents? To provide for the "rainy days" and to grasp opportunities. Did you ever sit down with a quiet hour of introspection and ask yourself if you are making an honest effort to safeguard the future that is as certain as tomorrow? Ever think how trifling are the pleasures of the hour compared with the real pleasure and satisfaction in the sacrifices and self denial of making provision for obligations? Ever realize what a credit account in some strong bank like the means to you in this development?

Frankly, we want to get acquainted with the man who saves his money against the day of need and opportunity. It is our business and our pleasure to help him with our advice and our facility for serving him.
Fred M. Warner, Pres. Sam'l D. Holcomb; Vice Pres.
C. W. Wilber, Cashier.

A GATHERING OF NEWSPAPER MEN

Detroit Board of Commerce Entertained the Craft of the State for Two Days

The "Round-up" of the editors of the state at Detroit last Thursday and Friday was the largest gathering of the kind in the history of the press associations.

The Detroit Board of Commerce invited the newspaper men of the state to visit Detroit as the guests of the Board of Commerce. The Eastern Michigan Press club and the Michigan Press association accepted and set the dates of their annual meetings to correspond with the entertainment in Detroit. The Board of Commerce invited the editors who visited Detroit to number of several hundred to attend a noonday luncheon given in honor of Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey on Thursday, and to a banquet for all newspaper men on the evening of the same day. After the banquet Governor Osborn, Joe Mitchell Chappell, publisher of the National Magazine; Governor Wilson and Arthur H. Vanderburg of Grand Rapids spoke on political and similar subjects. Frank I. Cobb, former Grand Rapids and Detroit newspaper man and now chief editorial writer on the New York World, gave a brilliant and thoroughly interesting talk on the late Joseph Pulitzer, his ideals and ideas on newspaper work.

On Friday the Eastern Michigan Press club held its annual meeting in the Griswold House.

At noon the Board of Commerce took the entire party, numbering several hundred to the Belle Isle casino, where a fine lunch was served. Here President Milton McRae of the Board of Commerce, Secretary Lucius Wilson, Assistant Secretaries Wm. B. Wreford, Don VanWinkle and Harry Gerbauser were publicly thanked by the editors for their many courtesies. After the luncheon, D. W. Grandson, publisher of the Hillsdale Daily, read a paper upon "The Business Office." The meeting then adjourned to the parlors of the Griswold House, and papers and speeches by Harry M. Niummo, editor Detroit Saturday night; Jas. W. Helme, deputy state dairy and food commissioner; Geo. W. Welch, publisher of the Fruit Belt, and Harry F. Straight, representative from Branch county, were heard. This paper hopes to be able to supply these talks to its readers in a short time.

President, Burton F. Browne of the Harbor Beach Times; vice president, Clifford Ward, publisher of the Charlotte Tribune; secretary, L. C. Cramton, publisher of the Lapeer Clarion; treasurer, A. D. Gallery, publisher of the Caro Advertiser; were all re-elected. President Browne appointed the following executive committee: A. B. Bragdon, Jr., Monroe Record-Commercial; Fred Carr, Dundee Reporter; A. B. Claspie, Oxford Leader; C. C. Vaughn, Clinton Co. Republican.

The office of director of publicity was created and A. E. Gordon of Detroit chosen for the job.

The name of the Eastern Michigan Press club was changed to Wolverine Press Association, so that this organization of newspaper people, the largest and most active in the state, might not be considered as limited to the publishers of newspapers in the eastern part of Michigan, but might be known as a general newspaper organization, which position it has occupied in the state for many years.

LADIES LITERARY CLUB

The Ladies' Literary club met Wednesday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Della Payne, twelve ladies braving the storm to listen to the afternoon program.

Mrs. Minnie Wilber very ably presented the subject, "Music and Drama of Japan." Music was introduced into Japan by China, but by the peculiar assimilative faculty of the Japanese, Chinese music soon ceased to be Chinese and became distinctively Japanese. It is curious that harmony, so important to our idea of true music, is considered by the Japanese to be both an obstruction and a distraction but there is a plaintiveness and certain melody which gives it a peculiar charm to the ears of the initiated at least. Music to the Japanese stands for purity of the human heart. The drama is of ancient origin and was born of mimetic dancing. Puppet shows were an evolution from this and were very popular. At this time most performances were given in pantomime and the same plays have held the stage for centuries.

Mrs. Way's paper on ceremonial dinners and teas was interesting and amusing. Hospitality is regarded as a fine art as well as a cardinal virtue. Rice and dried fish are the chief articles of diet, although meat eating is becoming more common.

Mrs. Laverna Adams' paper on "Carving in Wood and Ivory. Work in Copper, Bronze, Swords, Armor, etc.," showed Japan to have been from time immemorial adepts in the art of handling these materials, shaping them into forms of such lightness and delicacy and beauty never yet equalled by any other people.

The next meeting will be held January 31 at the home of Mrs. Warner.

The Boy Problem

"The Boy Problem"—is there one here? If so, how can it be worked out to the best interests of the boy, the community, the state and the nation. Upon the solution of this boy problem depends the weal or woe of all the others. The boy of today is the citizen of tomorrow.

W. D. Henderson of the University of Michigan will tell us what he knows about these things in the first lecture of the University course to be given Friday evening, Feb. 9. Will you be there to hear what he has to say. You owe it to the boy.

The O. E. S. will meet Friday, February 2.
