skowalski@o-homecomm.net Detroit Catholic Central senior guard Nick Moore has ande a verbal commitment to attend the University of Toledo. The Rockets finished 15-12 worall with a 10-8 record in the Mid-American Conference last former UT standout. Moore, a first-team All-Observer choise the last two years, also strongly considered the University of Wisconsin of the Big Ten. He made an official visit to the Madian, Wise, cam-pus the second weekend of September and tured down the Badgers' scholarship offer after visiting Toledo over Labor Day Weekend. Northwestern aftered Moore a Weekend. Northwestern offered Moore a scholarship over the summer but it was given to another guard before Moore had a chance to before Moore had a chance to make a visit. "I got the feeling from the Toledo concluses that they wanted me more than any other coach-es," Moore said. "Expecially when the head canch wants you so much. That's got to be a good thing. "The campus isn't too hig or too small, everything is compact. There's not much walking to get to classes."

There's not much walking to feet to classes." Moore's host was 6-foot-8 sophomore forward Greg Stempin, a former Harper Woods Notre Dame al-Istater who averaged 9.2 points and 5.0 erbounds in making the MAC all-freshman team. "He'a la to stronger – the col-lege game has built bim up a hi-tle bit, "Moore sold. This is sup-posed to be a big year for him." The Rockets' colors are blue and gold which are similar to the colors worn by Moore's favorito football team: The Uni-versity of Michigan. Moore's allegiance is to the UT basket-ball program but the football team that will always be No. 1 with bim wears maize and blue. "I told (UT assistant) coach (Tony) Jones no matter and blue. To school III always be a U-M football fan," Moore said. Moore carries a 3.5 grade point average and scored 22 on the ACT, scores that not only manog the upper celleban of bas-ketball recruits. "I told myself Id take it over kethall recruits. "I told myself I'd take it over (the ACT) unless I got a 25." Moore said. "But I'll stoy at 22. I hate taking it, it takes so long."

Moore's mother, Deborah, likes the idea of him playing so

"She definitely likes it," Moore said. "She is able to come down and see all the games."
