Homecoming Harrison crowns its royalty

BY TIM SMITH STAFF WRITER tamlih@oc.homecomm.net

starting of the second second

"We felt it was the most spirited homecoming week we've had in many years," said Brown. "We had over 600 kids at the (evening) dance."

The entire homecoming day was described by Brown as "a real nice event that brought out the joy of being in high school."

vence una orougnt out the joy of being in high school." Also recognized was the entire Home-coming Court, which was as follows: senior representatives, Rachel Buchrach, Eva Chavez, Jackson, Erika Judd, Melanie Kndwell; junior repre-sentatives, Gaybriel Newton and Lisa Rosemary: sophomore representative, Jamillah Sherman; fresiman represen-tative, Elizabeth Brozovich. Brown said there normally are only three senior reps, but this years court had five seniors, due to voi-ing deadlocks. "We be them all stay." Many groups were represented ing deadlocks. "We let them all stay." Many groups were represented warching band, cheerlenders and form on a squad members per-formed. "Football moms," faculty members and those in the Span-isse and the start of the span-ing the squad second second members of hand booaters and Students Against Drunk Driving. The junior class won the prize for best fond, with its "Jack and the Beanstalk" entry. Brown said the Beanstalk" entry. Brown said the Beanstalk entry. Brown said the All and Start and the Beanstalk the All and Start and the Beanstalk the All and Start and the Beanstalk the track and a Plymouth Canton player being squashed by the senantak. Other class floats were: fresh-mores, "Little Red Riding Mod. ... The Better to Beat You With" for the latter, there was a Canton player in the role of pig, with Har-rison players huffing, pulling and player in the role of pig. with Har-rison players huffing, pulling and Diale Ming the pig's house down.

Festivities: The Harrison Marching Band performed at the parade.

Brown explained. Meanwhile, Brown said the senior class wants to recognize the efforts of parent Janice Maxoy, who allowed the Class of 1990 to build their freshmen year. Maxey's dupther is senior Brit-tony Maxoy. "Then are so appreciative of her."

"They are so appreciative of her," Brown snid.

Brown said. Throuphout the week, students par-ticipated in various dress up days, all with a particular theme. Monday, paja-ma day, Tuesday, clash day (wearing outfits that don't go together, etc.); Wednesday, generations day, pitting '60, '70s eloting; Thuraday, twin day; Friday, class color day. Also on Federa students energed in

Also on Friday, students engaged in everything from an egg toss to pie eat-ing contests during a Spirit Week assembly in the gymnasium.

-...; SFA

BUST PROTO BY BUL HUDDE Huggs: Hunter Mechigian, 21/2, of Farmington Hills hugs the ever-popular Sparky.

FIFE from page A1

home, which included a course on the tuck and roll and how to properly dial 911. "There's always a waiting list for the smoke house where they can practice the escape with theatrical smoke," Farmington Hills Fire Chief Richard Marinucci said. Aside from the underlying seriousness, there's plenty of fun too. Children don firefighter gear and are able to hop up on a fire engine while being entertained by the zany Farmington Hills Fire Department clowns.

"Everybody seems to enjoy themselves," Marin-ucci said. "The kids enjoy themselves and the parents are happy, too.

"And you're sneaking in a little education that will pay off in the long run."

(F)A7

This new plastic will make you look great at tax time.

盒

Introducing Michigan National's Equi:Money[®] Visa[®] the tax-deductible credit card. Look great? Absolutely. When you use Equi: Money Visa, the interest you pay is generally tax deductible since it is secured by the equity in your home—ask your tax advisor. Equi:Money Visa also offers a permanently low interest rate based on Prime Rate. You can even consolidate outstanding balances on other credit cards or loans to increase your savings. With Equi:Money Visa, spending money has never looked so good.

For more Information: 1-800-CALL-MNB

www.MichiganNational.com

Inse of credit wire is a BON. APRe are variable

Michigan National