Style's the news at League show

They were dancin' in their sents at the Redford Suburban League's Festival of Fashion '98 last Wednesday afternoon at Burton Manor in Livonia.

Burton Manor in Livonia.

In celebration of the League's 25th anniversary, a host of media celebrities strutted their stuff on the runway. At the show's end, UPN 50's Jim 'Mad Dog' Madaus raised the rafters with some rock 'n roll guitar riffs. Huel Perkins of Fox 2 and Brigetta Launce (Jimmy's beautiful and enerpetic wife, a former model) stole the show with their dance moves.

The Redford Suburban League has distributed over $350,000 throughout the years to people of all ages who are physically challenged. President Cynthia Jamieson thanked the guests and celebrities for their attendance, patronage of the craft boutiques and purchase of raffle tickets.

Best friends and television collections of the show included a Santa sweater and hand-carved wood-loagues Doris Bisece and Rich Fisher continued their lengtime gigs as commentators. And celebrity models included anair personalities from Fox 2, UPN 50, WXYZ TV-7, WDV TV-4, WCSX, WXYT and WYUR.

Among those joining them were former Detroit Tiger Frank Tanana, AAA Michigaris 30-30 Shutty-MacGregor, Chef Larry Janes and Miss Redford Township Audric Chernauckas.
