Courtesy is Contagious
Today we are hearing a new term called "road rage," where one driver becomes enraged because of another's driving. People have been hurt and even killed by "road rage." We should try to not let other people's wrongful actions affect our emotions and behavior. When dealing with other people, wherever we may be, consideration and courtesy usually has a ripple effect on others. When a kind act is directed toward someone, he or she will often reciprocate and act courteously toward someone else. In general, people are good, and sometimes we just have to be reminded to be kind. Being aware of other people's feelings and looking for ways to be cordial to others makes life more enjoyable for everyone. God wants us to love our neighbors, and to be helpful, kind, and considerate toward them.
And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.
R.S.V. Ephesians 4:32
