Trusting & Accepting God's Ways

Recently, a friend of mine told me about his meeting with a financial adviser, and how for the first time he truly understood what he was being told. He felt he could trust and accept the advice because the financial adviser explained simply and at his level of understanding. Our relationship with God should also be simple and easy to understand. We may not fully understand everything about our faith or why certain things happen to us in this world, but that's okay. We simply have to realize that God cares about us and that His ways are not always our ways. God's unending love and support for us is always there. In return, He asks us to love, trust, and accept Him as our Lord and Savior.

"Almighty God, how happy are those who trust in you!"
Good News Bible Psalms 84:12
