Come To Me, You Who Are Tired

In this fast-paced world, it seems we never have enough time to get everything done. At work, things can be very competitive, and industry is demanding more and more from its workers. At home, more is demanded of everyone in order to meet family needs, and sometimes we are even too busy to enjoy what we have. We live with computers, telephones, and beepers close by to help us keep in constant touch with the world. Everyone is striving to survive, and get ahead. Our Heavenly Father does want us to work, but he does not want us to be constantly depressed, unhappy, or overly stressed, and He has given us common sense to realize when we are trying to do too much. We should prayerfully ask God to help us keep a healthy balance between work and leisure time.

Come to me, all of you who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest.
