Applications available for Rotary awards

Applications for 2001-02 Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships are now available from the Rotary Club of Farmington.

The scholarships, which are designed to further international understanding and goodwill, provide for study abroad in more than 160 countries where Rotary clubs are located. Some 1,300 scholarships of various types will be available from clubs worldwide. During their studies abroad, Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholars act as "ambassadors of goodwill." Through appearances before Rotary clubs and districts, schools, civic organizations, and other forums, the scholars represent their home-lands and work to further international understanding.

Academic-Year Ambassadorial Scholarships are for one academic year abroad and provide funding for round-trip transportation, tuition and fees, room, board, some educational supplies, and language training (if necessary), up to a maximum award of US $25,000 or its equivalent.

For more information and an application, please contact Jan Dolan, 22587 Gill Road, Farmington Hills, 48335. Deadline for students to submit applications is March 15. Interested students may also want to consult the Rotary website at www.rotary.org where the application may be downloaded in English.

The Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships is the world's largest privately sponsored international scholarship program. Focused on humanitarian service, personal diplomacy, and academic excellence, the program has sponsored more than 30,000 Rotary Scholars abroad since it began in 1947.
