Michigan bowlers vie for state titles

TEN-PIN ALLEY
AL HARRISON

Last weekend marked the kickoff of the 97th Annual Michigan State Bowling Tournament, 'Detroit 2000.'

It runs a total of 17 weeks, ending in May with 2,600 teams entered from all over Michigan.

The team events were held at Bonanza Lanes in Warren, the singles and doubles running at Sterling Lanes in Sterling Heights.

The first week's results are in and the early team event leaders are:

Actual, R & D Enterprises of Lansing with 3210; and handicap, Larko Wood Floor Service of Royal Oak with 3477 followed by Cass Techs of Redford with 3440.

Doubles actual leaders are Otis Bradley and David Bell of Pontiac with 1380; doubles handicap is led by Tim Lark and Eric Johnson of Royal Oak with 1461.

Singles leaders are:

Actual, Jason Nieman of Warren with 729; and handicap, Jason Nieman with 818.

All-events actual, Don Nyenhuis of Wyoming at 2107 followed by Tim Saunders of Redford at 2099; and handicap, Jason Nieman at 2307 in first and Tim Saunders at fourth with 2180. Alfred Stroud of Southfield had a 290 and Mark Rogers of Lansing 299.

The event being in our area is a boost for the local economy as more than 13,000 participate.

The proprietors, Mark and Diane Voight of Farmington, are particularly pleased with the turnout as it is a nice boost for their business and others in the community as well.

Ten Pin Alley will keep updating the scores.

• On Saturday, Feb. 5, 2000, the third annual LPVI Bowl-A-Thon will be held at Woodland Lanes in Livonia.

It's a benefit for visually impaired children throughout Western Wayne County.

There are openings for bowlers and sponsors. All of the money raised in the event is used to support programs helping these children.

Sign-in time is 1:30 or earlier. Bowling starts at 2 p.m.

As this is their only fundraiser, they would like each participant to raise at least $25 either by getting sponsors who will donate a set dollar amount or just making a donation of $25 or more per bowler.

Donations to LPVI are tax deductible. Make checks payable to LPVI.

There will be lots of prizes given away. Grand Prize is a one-year membership to the Livonia Y awarded to the individual that collects the most donations exceeding $500.

The LPVI (Livonia Parents of the Visually Impaired) has for 26 years funded programs that teach both daily living and social skills by feel, touch and sound.

Given the proper support, these children can become contributing members of society.

Call either Lucille H. Fritz at (248) 471-3940 or Bonnie Sheridan at (734) 459-3439 with questions or to request an entry form.
