

Foe's late goal costs Whalers a victory

Twenty-five seconds. That's all that separated the Plymouth Whalers from a major mid-season victory over the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds, leaders in the Ontario Hockey League's West Division.

But the Whalers had to settle for a 1-1 draw after surrendering a game-tying goal to the 'Hounds' Josef Vasicek with just 25 seconds left, with Soo goalie Jeanne Flick off the ice for another attacker.

As good as Whaler goalie Rob Zepp was, making 21 saves, he was overshadowed by Flick. The Whalers pounded the 'Hounds' netminder with 40 shots, including five in overtime; Zepp did not have to make a save in the OT. It was a defensive struggle throughout, with Plymouth's Kris Vermaak breaking the stalemate with a goal at 9:13 of the third period. Stephen Morris and Labor Uetruul assisted.

WINDSOR 7, PLYMOUTH 4: The streak was going to end, sometime or another. Still, the Plymouth Wilders were not wondering: Why not another? Seeing a seven-game win streak snapped is hard enough. When it comes against one of the teams you're locked in a battle with for top honors in your division, the loss is doubly difficult. But that's what the Whalers were forced to accept. They narrowed a three-goal deficit to one early in the third period Thursday at Windsor, but they couldn't get the equalizer in this clash between OHL West Division rivals.

The two teams had been tied for second place in the division, five points behind the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds, going into the game played at Windsor. The Whalers had the early advantage, scoring twice in the first 6:20. Jamie Lafonde got a power-play goal, assisted by Stephen Weiss and Shaun Fisher, at the 4:38 mark. Then Randy Fitzgerald got the first of his three goals, from Danlan Surma and Justin Williams, at 6:20 of the first.

But the Spitfires weren't down for long. Shawn Mather, Pavel Shtefan and Luc Rieux all scored goals for Windsor before the first period was over, giving him a 3-2 lead.

Shtefan and Tim Gleason pushed the Spits lead to 5-2 with goals in the first 5:05 of the second, but Fitzgerald's second goal (from Surma and Williams) trimmed Plymouth's deficit to 5-3 entering the third.

Fitzgerald opened the final period with his third goal, this one a power-play marker just 17 seconds in, from Fitzgerald and Surma to make it a one-goal contest. But Windsor stopped the Whalers there, getting goals from Craig Kennedy and Ryan Courtney to ice the victory.

Surma finished with three assists for the Whalers; Kennedy and Fisher had two apiece. Bill Ruggiero and Rob Zepp divided time in goal for Plymouth. Zepp surrendering five goals and Ruggiero two. Mike Leighton went the distance in goal for Windsor, making 16 stops.

looning the margin to 39-9.

"Once we got to the middle weights, it could have gone either way," Smith said, "but our middle weights came through and I kept on driving."

"I thought it would be a lot closer," Farmington assistant coach Barry Walsh said. "We lost a couple we thought we could win. They were all key matches, and we just didn't come out on top."

Stevenson started with pins by Steve Cady (103) and Josh Gunterman (112). Bill Bullock won by technical fall at 125, and Alex Pushman recorded a third-period pin at 135.

Farmington's only wins in the early rounds came from Jon Simmons, who had a pin at 119, and Aaron Turk, who managed a late escape at 130 to edge Mike Khoe, 6-5.

"We didn't expect to get six (from Cady) right out of the chute," Smith said. "That got us going. Billy Bullock moved up to 125 from 119, which proved to be a good move for us."

"We knew we were going to have some pivotal matches that were going to determine matches later on."

Farmington finished with pins by Kyle Domagalski (215) and Brian Brinaden (275) to make the final score a little more respectable.

"We're not in the condition they are, but we will be there later in the season," Walsh said. "They're a very intense team and, with the quality wrestlers they have, you have to be intense in that (Stevenson) wrestling room to survive."

"We have similar quality wrestlers, but we're not the point of carrying on the same intensity throughout practice."

As to where they are in their conditioning and season plan, the Falcons, who had wrestlers either sick, injured or away during the holiday break, are pacing themselves for the long haul, he added.

"This is our second week back, and we're making our push," Walsh said. "I'd like to say the team you saw tonight will be a different team come league and district time."
