

Area angler finds success on pro fishing circuit action of the professional bass fishing circuit.

Greene, of Bloomfield Hills, has been competing at the professional level for 10 years and is off to his best start yet. With four of seven qualifying events under his belt in the BASS Kmart Top 150 Circuit, Greene is in the running for a coveted berth in the BASS Masters Classic world championship. The top 25 finishers in the point standings at the conclusion of the seven qualifying events earn a berth in the 2000 Classic, which will be held in August in Chicago.

Following a spectacular third-place finish two weeks ago in the Kmart Top 150 on Lake Tox, near Orlando, Fla., Greene is in 21st place in the point standings.

"If I can keep the pressure on and keep fishing the way I have been, I could be OK," Greene said. "I just need to keep going into the tournament with an open mind and, hopefully, have good results."

That open-mindedness is playing a key role in Greene's success.

"I changed my method of practice. I'm more open-minded when trying to find fish," he said. "I'm staying closer, so I'm not spending a lot of time running all over the lake and concentrating on the fish that are nearby."

That approach paid off in the Lake Tox tournament when the weather kicked up on the second day of competition. Facing winds gusts of 30 mph, Greene had to change his tactic and left the main lake for the wind shelter of a nearby bay. He finished with a four-day total of 20 fish that weighed 43 pounds, 7 ounces.

For his efforts, Greene won a Chevy pickup truck valued at $25,000 along with a check for $5,000.

"I just bought a house so I wasn't planning on a new truck anytime soon," he said. "It came at a good time."

Greene said he caught most of his fish on a Zoom Super Fluke, a soft plastic jerk bait.

"So far I'm off to my best start, my most consistent start," Greene said. "The key to this whole sport is being consistent."

The next stop on the Top 150 trail is at Lake Seminole, on the Florida/Georgia border, the second week of February. The Mega Bucks Tournament will be held on Lake Murray in South Carolina in March and the final tournament will be held in May on Lake Wheeler, Ala.

New shooting range

The DNR opened a state-of-the-art shooting range recently at the Island Lake Recreation Area. Located on Grand River between Kensington Road and Kent Lake (exit 151 off I-96), the range features 40 stations that are handicap accessible and offer shots of 25 yards, 50 yards and 100 yards. A mechanized skeet and trap range and a concession building is scheduled to be built this summer and the entire facility is expected to be completed and dedicated by Sept. 1.

Sporting Flies reminder

Don't forget about the sixth annual Sporting Flies Challenge, slated for Thursday, Feb. 3 at the Southfield Civic Center and sponsored by the Paul H. Young Chapter of Trout Unlimited. The event, held in conjunction with the annual "What's New in Tackle Night," will run from 7-10 p.m.

The Sporting Flies Challenge allows anglers to compete against each other in an effort to raise money for stream improvement projects statewide. Participants cast at targets on an artificial trout stream and accumulate points for hitting the targets. There are three divisions of competition including an individual challenge, a club challenge and a team challenge.

For more information see the Paul H. Young Chapter's Web site at www.paulyoungtu.org or call (248) 683-3688.

(Bill Parker writes a weekly outdoor column for the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers. Hunters and anglers are urged to report their success. Questions and comments are also welcomed. Send information to: Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, Outdoors, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, MI 48003.)
