My Brother's Keeper

In the book of Genesis, after Cain killed his brother Abel, the Lord asked Cain the question, "Where is your brother Abel?" Cain's reply was, "I do not know." He was supposed to take care of his brother. Not only did Cain murder his brother, he then lied to God about this terrible act. For this, God placed Cain under a curse, driving him from the land and he could no longer farm the soil. It appears that Cain showed no remorse or repentance for his actions and he felt that God had no right to question him. However, the Bible indicates to us that we should love and treat others as we would want to be treated. When Jesus was asked, which is the greatest commandment in the Law, He answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind. Love your neighbor as yourself."

The command that Christ has given us is this: Whoever loves God must love his brother also.
