Man's Law and God's Law
God's law is quite different from man's law. God's law tells us to be merciful and loving to others, without judgment or condemnation. God is the ultimate Judge, and only He knows the true spirit of our hearts. If we are truly repentant and sorry for our wrongdoings, God in His ultimate mercy and love, will forgive us. Man's law is such that, if we do something wrong or illegal, we are expected to suffer some consequence. Although these may seem to be simplified definitions of man's law and God's law, only God knows our true motives and feelings regarding forgiveness and judgment. The Bible tells us that if we hold anything against another, we should forgive them, so that our Father in Heaven may forgive our sins (Mark 11:25). And, if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9). Keeping man's law is easier if we keep God's law in our heart.
Happy are those whose lives are faultless, who live according to the law of the Lord.
