Hawls. Senior Joe Hundley had nine points and 11 rebounds, Nelson six points and nine rebounds. Senior Matt Knox added six points, too.

"Winston had the hot hand tonight," Turnquist said. "He's coming on as a complete basketball player and doing it at both ends of the floor. It's a treat to see, because he absolutely loves this game."

Moton finished with a game-high 17 points. Junior Brent Dogle added 14. Harrison made five of 10 free throws, Glenn nine of 15.

N. FARMINGTON 60, NORTHVILLE 38: What had the potential to be a close game Tuesday didn't end up that way. The visiting Raiders made sure of that.

North Farmington buried the home in the middle quarters, outscoring Northville 36-14, to run away with the WAAA victory.

The Raiders remain tied with Walled Lake Western for first place, both with 9-1 records. The Mustangs are part of a three-way tie for seventh place.

Senior Paul Watha scored 14 of his game-high 24 points in the second quarter, during which North outscored Northville, 20-6.

The Raiders enjoyed a halftime lead of 35-20 and increased it to 52-28 after three periods.

Watha's point total included three three-point field goals. Senior Emir

Medunjanin added 12 points and senior Adrian Bridges seven.

Aaron Redden scored all of his 12 points in the first half for the Mustangs, who also had 10 points from David Greer.

North (11-5) made four of eight free throws, Northville (7-8) two of two.

FARMINGTON 47, FRANKLIN 39: Senior center Justin Milus scored 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds Tuesday to lift the Farmers to the WAAA triumph over host Livonia Franklin.

Farmington seniors C.J. Whitfield and Chad Seaborn added nine and eight points, respectively. Juniors Joe Rugler and Mike Copeland scored 10 each for Franklin.

Farmington made 18 of 36 shots from the floor, along with 11 of 15 free throws. Franklin was 17 of 45 from the field and 4-of-6 from the line.

Farmington led wire-to-wire, including 38-20 after three quarters.

"We stayed close most of the way," Franklin coach Dan Robinson said. "Milus hurt us. They hurt us a little bit on the boards. They definitely won that battle."

The Falcons held third place in the WAAA with an 8-2 record; Franklin is 10th at 2-8. Farmington is 13-3 overall, the Patriots 4-12.

CLARENCEVILLE 81, LUTHERAN NORTHWEST 48: You shouldn't need to score 30 points in the fourth quarter to win a high school basketball game, but it's nice to know that you can.

Livonia Clarenceville scored 30 in the final period Tuesday night to pull out a 61-48 victory at Rochester Hills Lutheran Northwest.

The Trojans played a lackluster three quarters and trailed, 37-31, entering the fourth. They were down 47-38, midway through the final period when coach Bill Dyer decided it was time for Plan B.

"We picked them up full court," Dyer said. "We hounded them. We got a few steals, got a few baskets and things sort of deteriorated from there on then."

The Trojans outscored the Crusaders, 25-1, in those final few minutes to take the sting from a poor start.

"We were really sluggish for three quarters," Dyer said. "Mentally, I don't think we were ready to play."

"We had a week layoff (between games). We'd been going pretty hard for a long stretch, so we gave the kids a little extra time off. We gave them a chance to mentally and physically regroup."

"We regrouped — but it took us three quarters to do it."

Senior forward Rick Burak scored 18 points, took down 15 rebounds and added five assists.

Senior guard Scott Carr tallied 11 points while Corey McKinley scored nine, going 7-for-8 from the line in the fourth quarter.

Nathan Richard led Lutheran Northwest with 17 points and Chris Loewe added 13.

Clarenceville (11-5) finished its Metro Conference season with a 7-1 record and will play a non-league game Friday against Southington Aquinas. Clarenceville finished second to Hamtramck in the league. Lutheran Northwest (8-8) finished 3-5 in the league.

DELTA DEFEATS OCC TEAM: Delta College rallied in the second half Saturday to defeat host Oakland in men's and women's college basketball.

The Raiders were ahead at halftime in the men's game, 44-40, but were outscored by the Hornets in the second half, 59-46. The final tally was 99-90.
