

Hawks need help; Falcons share title

Farmington Harrison suffered a setback Friday when host Livonia Franklin scored a 63-51 upset win in boys basketball.

But the Hawks could still make the Western Lakes Activities Association playoffs, which start this week.

Harrison needs some help from Plymouth Salem, however. In a game postponed to Monday, the Rocks play host to Walled Lake Central in the WLAA regular-season finale.

A Salem victory will give Harrison the eighth and final playoff berth. A Central victory will eliminate Harrison and put Central in the tournament.

Northville, Harrison and Central went into the final weekend of round-robin play tied for fourth place with 4-6 records.

Northville defeated Livonia Churchill and is in at 5-6. Harrison drops to 4-7 but would win a tiebreaker with Central if the Vikings also lose, because the Hawks beat Central in head-to-head competition.

Franklin's Joe Ruggiero scored a game-high 25 points that included six of the team's 10 three-point field goals.

The Patriots had two three-pointers from Derek Schenck, who also led Franklin with 10 rebounds, and one apiece from Chris Patterson and Jason McAlfe.

Mike Copeland added nine points and seven rebounds for the Patriots, who are 3-8 in the WLAA and 5-12 overall.

"Harrison played well," Coach Dave Turnquist did a nice job of switching up defenses and caused us some confusion," Farmington coach Denny Mikol said.

"To our credit, our kids played very well and hung in there. They played well and we did a good job of getting screens and getting him open. It was a good team win for us."

Jon Hunsley led the Hawks with 20 points and nine rebounds. Brian Nelson added 12 points.

Harrison (8-9) led after one quarter, 17-13, and at halftime, 26-24. Franklin took a 42-41 lead into the final period.

Harrison sank seven of 14 free throws, Franklin nine of 17.

Falcons gain title share

Farmington is guaranteed a share of the Lakes Division championship and no less than the No. 3 seed in the WLAA tournament after defeating Livonia Stevenson Friday, 69-60.

"Now we can sit back, let the others fight it out and see who we play in (the tournament)," Farmington coach Denny Mikol said.

"We knew a win tonight would guarantee us a share of the division championship. The kids were focused in on that."

The Falcon finish 9-2 in the WLAA regular season and 4-1 in the Lakes Division.

Pending the outcome of games that were postponed Friday, Farmington could still tie for the WLAA round-robin title.

It trails co-leaders North Farmington and Walled Lake Western by one game. Those teams are 9-1 with one game remaining.

The Falcons expanded a 21-16, first-quarter lead over the Spartans to 40-24 at halftime and 66-38 by the end of three quarters.

Chad Senkorn scored a game-high 19 points to lead Farmington (14-6). Justin Miller and Brian Dunc had nine points apiece, as well as 12 and nine rebounds, respectively. Matt Mikol and Curtis Tillman added eight points each.

Chris Severson was high scorer for Stevenson (3-14) with 12 points. John Rehberg scored eight, Harland Beverly seven.

ACQUINAS ED, CLARENCEVILLE 49:

The Raiders jumped all over the Trojans in the first two quarters by doing them to school and 100-50.

Senior Jason Fritts and Clarenceville made it look good by making just two three-pointers out of 20 attempted from beyond the arc.

"It was 26-9 at half," coach Bill Dyer of the Trojans said. "That was the problem."

Senior forward Joe Burke was unperturbed for the Raiders (4-12) in the crossover game between the No. 2 Metro team and the last-place team in the Catholic League's AA Division.

Burke scored 31 points and when the 6-foot-6 forward wasn't hitting, senior guard D.J. Kielick was with 15.

Academy center Scott Wicin led the Trojans with 20, while senior forward Rick Duncanson had 15.

Academy gave up its zone in the second half and Clarenceville almost ran them back into the game. The Trojans closed to within six points late in the fourth quarter but could get no closer.

On Tuesday, Clarenceville (11-6) is the No. 2 seed in the Metro Conference tournament and hosts No. 7 Cranbrook in a quarterfinal matchup.
