

Trojans tumble in regional title match

A thrilling comeback by Brown City propelled Livonia Clarenceville's wrestling team into Wednesday's Division III regional final.

But Memphis made sure the Trojans never got back to carry the momentum into the final as it beat Clarenceville, 42-39, at New Haven.

"It wasn't as close as the score would show," said Clarenceville coach Chris Kraft. "We had a great comeback in the first match (at 12:44). But they jumped out so far ahead we never got a chance to come back. None of our more experienced guys had a chance to wrestle in that match."

The Yellowjackets stalked out a 42-16 lead to clinch the match, then forfeited the last four matches before beginning its comeback.

"Every weight was a match," said Kraft. "It came down to us getting two pins and two major decisions in the last four matches."

Rose capped the win by pinning Carl Hallead in 3:35, after falling behind in the first fall.

"Hallead had Josh on his back during the whole first period," Kraft said. "In the second, Josh came back and ended up pinning him. It was his most exciting match of the year."

After Al-Mooshi began with an 8-4 win over Ed Chafin and Tondreau earned a 6-2 win over Jeff Jones, the Trojans got just two wins in their next six tries — junior Ernest Reddie's pin of scholastic Hockey League.

The Flyers (16-7-1) begin post-season play Monday against state-ranked and undefeated Redford Unified in a first-round regional game at Redford Ice Arena.

"It's going to be a really tough game," Bruhan said. "We have to work very hard; they're a very good team. They have to be if they're undefeated."

"But we'll be ready to play. This was a good warm-up for us (Friday). It showed us what we're going to work on this weekend."

Flyers sink Captains

Heraghty scored a team record four goals Wednesday to lead the Flyers to an 8-2 victory over visiting Waterford Kettering. Lee added two goals.

Heraghty's second goal, with half a second left in the first period, put Farmington ahead to stay, breaking a 1-1 tie.

The Flyers pulled their goalie for a faceoff in the Waterford end with 1.3 seconds remaining. The strategy worked as Heraghty scored with an assist from Temerowski.

Heraghty started the scoring at 7:01 in the first period, assisted by Jeff Swanson and Lee. Waterford's Nick Hopson knotted the score with 1 1/2 minutes left.

Heraghty scored his third goal early in the second period, and the Flyers led 5-1 when it was over following goals by David Brown and Lee, who scored on a power play. Mike Frayne (Brown) and Glen Hearn (Lee) assisted.

Scott Salomonson, Heraghty and Lee completed the Farmington scoring in the third period, and Hopson scored his second for Kettering.

Heraghty's fourth was a power-play goal, with assists from Lee and Patterson, that featured some great passing, according to Bruhan.

"Four or five quick passes and the puck was in the net," he said. "That goal would make the highlight films at any level of play."

Temerowski had another assist on the Salomonson goal, and Heraghty picked up an assist on Lee's second goal, which came just 23 seconds after Heraghty's fourth (6:26 and 6:03).

McLean was in goal for the first two periods; Greg Diven played the third period. Each gave up one goal.

The Flyers lost defenseman Tom Close for the remainder of the season Wednesday with a broken ankle.
