What should I Worry About Today?
It seems, that at times, we look for things to worry about: the weather, our job, our home, our family, and on and on. A little concern about our daily lives is probably good, but we should not let worry or fear take over our lives. One thing I know for sure about worry and fear is that they do not come from God. They are either a figment of our own imagination or they are coming from the evil one who, incidentally, was defeated two thousand years ago at the cross, and the only thing he can use against us is fear. There is nothing that can happen to God's children that our Lord is not aware of. In the book of Matthew, Jesus tells us not to worry, and that worrying can not add a single hour to our life. We are told to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all of the things that we need will be given to us. We should not worry about tomorrow because there is no need to add to the troubles that each day brings. Our heavenly Father loves us and wants us to be at peace with ourselves and worry free.
I have the strength to face all conditions by the power that Christ gives me.
