Farmington rebounded from an extra-inning loss Wednesday to score an 8-0 softball victory Friday over a good-looking Franklin team.

"At practice Thursday the girls were challenged to raise the standard a little bit and they responded," Harrison coach Mike Teachman said.

The Hawks are 2-0 in the Western Division of the Lakes Activities Association; they were 2-1 overall prior to a Saturday tournament at Mercy.

Harrison had 12 hits off Franklin pitching while Harrison pitcher Lindsey Emmett limited the Patriots to four.

Kim Spaulding and Janelle Welling were 3-for-4. Gayle Ternes and Sarah Tobie had two hits apiece.

Welling drove in four runs with two triples and a single. Spaulding and Ternes had one RBI each; Spaulding also scored three runs, Welling two and Tobie one.

Raiders in hitting slump

A lack of offense sent North Farmington into a softball slump at the end of last week.

The Raiders dropped their second straight game Friday in a 3-1 loss to visiting Plymouth Salem, which outbit North, 5-4.

North also made two costly errors, which enabled Salem to score two runs.

Salem's Dawn Allen (2-for-3, two runs) tripled and scored on an error during a two-run fourth inning. She doubled and scored from second as a result of an errant throw to first in the sixth.

"The bottom line is they got a couple key hits and we didn't," North coach Dave Brubaker said. "We have to take some batting practice."

Leading pitcher Both Danielewicz was 2-for-3 and knocked in North's only run. Samantha McComb and Chrissy King had the other hits.

Danielewicz fanned five and walked one while giving the distance. Salem's Liz Dekanek had seven strikeouts and zero walks.

"Beth deserved better than she got the last two games," Brubaker said. "Right now we're getting the pitching and defense, but the offense needs some tweaking."

Danielewicz pitched a three-hitter Wednesday, but the Raiders still lost to host Livonia Franklin, 2-1.

North had five hits off Franklin pitcher Tara Muchow, who struck out eight and walked five. Danielewicz had four strikeouts.

McComb was 2-for-4. Christina Colombo, who scored, the only North run on a passed ball, King and Kristy Reinhardt had the other hits for the Raiders.

The Raiders are 1-1 in the WLA Lakes Division. They were 1-2 overall going into a Saturday tournament at Mercy.

Rockets started their winning rally in the eighth inning Wednesday with consecutive singles.

The Hawks got two quick outs when Kim Spaulding fielded a ground ball, stepped on third base and relayed to first.

Glenn's Amanda Ross made a delayed steal to third; the ball arrived at the same time as Ross, who scored when the ball left the infield.

Harris went down in order in the bottom of the eighth.

With runners at the corners in the seventh with two outs, Glenn scored two runs on an error, giving the Rockets an 8-6 lead.

Jenny Wingert, who had two hits and three RBI for Harrison, hit a two-run single in the bottom of the seventh to tie the score.

"If we make one more catch and have one more good at-bat, that stuff doesn't happen," Teachman said.

"(Kristin) Schreck deserved a little better support than she got, and we have to have more timely hits."

Schreck, filling in for Emmett, pitched the whole game; she struck out five batters, walked one and hit one.

The Rockets had a 13-11 edge in hits; Stephanie Fedulchuk went the distance for Glenn, walking four and striking out two.

Ternes went 3-for-4, which included a double and a triple, and had three RBI. She also stole two bases and scored two runs.

CANTON 5, FARMINGTON 0: This game, played Wednesday at Canton, meant it was more to the Chiefs than most WLA crossover contests.

"The girls were really up for that game," coach Jim Arnold said, "because Farmington eliminated us (in the district tournament) last year."

Laura Stewart tossed a gem, allowing just two hits and no walks while striking out 15. Melissa Mytty took the loss for the Falcons, giving up five hits and four walks, including one run.

Canton scored three times in the second, with singles by Michelle Devos and Christina Kiesel, followed by a double steal, setting things up. A passed ball scored one run; after a walk and another stolen base, Lisa Baker delivered a two-run single.

The Chiefs scored twice more in the sixth, including a home run by Angie Hest (she skipped past the Farmington left fielder).

county — Lakeland, Farmington and a couple others: On the east side, the teams are down from last year, although Rochester is pretty strong."

Rochester looked impressive Thursday in winning the Oakland Activities Association Division I tournament by 31 points over runner-up Adams.

"It's hard to say what we'll do," Rochester Hal Commerson said. "Carn hasn't played much golf. She's also the school valedictorian, a great singer and is on our robotics team, which is one of the tops in the nation."

Commerson agreed with Pasberg that Mercy is in a class of its own.

"The odds-on favorite has to be Mercy," he said. "They're very good. I just went through the entire, and they're right up there with a lot of the top players."

Commerson also likes Cranbrook and Pasberg said Troy should be decent. Last year's Division 2 winner Farmington, Lakeland and Troy-Athens have moved up to Division I.

"Cassie is doing an outstanding job," coach Ann Marie Sopha said. "She's hitting, she's long drives now. It's amazing."

modelist honors, Kristin Simon carded a 47, Laura Casper 52 and Jessica Magnotta 54.

Magnotta said she's "going to rest" because she's been playing in her home state on Wednesday, 184-134. Sarah Martin of the Red Devils had the low score for the day at 40.

Seniors Erin, Stephanie and Allison Grosser tie Country Club to lead the Marlins. Senior LaTonya Foster and Junior Katie Dinamore finished at 49; Cibrarin came in at 51.

"The girls know they can beat Grosser like because they know they can play better than they did," Mercy coach Vicki Kowalski said. "We think we're a better tournament team. We like to play 18 holes. Get used to them for the long haul and we do well."

The Marlins were about to have that opportunity.

Mercy was the defending champion on Saturday in the East Lansing tournament and will attempt to defend its Oakland County title Tuesday at Pontiac Country Club. The Marlins also play in the Brighton Invitational on Monday.
