

Errors cost Chiefs victory in nightcap

It was a nice break, but it wasn't quite a vacation for Plymouth Canton's baseball team.

While most teams were off on a spring break this week, Canton went to Dearborn Divine Child for a doubleheader Tuesday.

It came back with a split, shutting out the Falcons in the opener, 6-0, before dropping a mistake-filled, 9-5 decision in the second game.

"We find out more about our team Monday (May 1) when we play Farmington Harrison," Coach Scott Dickey said. "We have them at home and they're undefeated."

Canton got a three-hit shutout from Jon Johnson (3-1) in its first-game victory over Divine Child. He only struck out one but he kept his walks to three batters.

Junior Oliver Wolcott went 2-for-4 with a double, drove in two runs and scored two. Sophomore Jim Winans struck 2-for-3 with an RBI and senior Bryan Kay was 1-for-2 with an RBI.

Canton (8-3) doomed itself with five errors in the second game, four of them coming in the second inning.

Divine Child took advantage of the errors, two walks and a pair of hit batters to score seven runs, six of the runs unearned.

"Up until the second game against Divine Child, we'd been playing good defense this year," Dickey said. "We've been getting better every day."

The strength of our team has been hitting. We're averaging 9-9 runs a game and allowing about two. I'm pleased with that.

"And, our young pitchers are starting to come around."

"That was our worst game and I'm happy to get it out of our system."

Greg Neino went five innings and took the second-game loss, giving up all three of the hits the Falcons (14-3) collected in the game. He walked three, struck out two and was charged with two earned runs.

Junior Brian Rosow went 3-for-4 with a double, RBI and a run scored. Junior Jay Sofon went 2-for-4, Johnson had a hit and two RBI and Jon Loos had a hit and scored twice.

Canton had nine hits in the game.

Saturday, Canton hosted Dearborn and defeated the Pioneers twice, 9-5 and 5-0.

Left-hander Brent Vasher posted the second-game shutout, hurling a three-hitter and striking out nine. He walked a pair.

Kay went 3-for-3 with a double, an RBI and a run scored; Wolcott was 2-for-3 with two RBI; Mike Tommasitis had a double and two RBI; junior Russ Caid had a double; and both Sofon and Mike Joppe had a hit.

In the opener, sophomore Matt Staley scattered six hits, walked four and struck out six over 6 1/2 innings.

Only three of the runs allowed by Staley (1-0) were earned. Wolcott came on for the final two outs, fanning one.

Kay had two hits including a triple, drove in two runs, scored three and stole a base. Wolcott went 2-for-3 with two RBI and a stolen base and Wisniewski was 3-for-4 with two RBI, a stolen base and a run scored.

Sofon had a double and scored a run while Johnson had a hit and an RBI.

Rocks try to figure puzzle

Plymouth Salem is a baseball team in search of itself.

Coach Dale Rumberger's squad gained some confidence Tuesday with 8-2 and 14-5 victories over outmanned Detroit St. Martin de Porres.

"We're still searching for a lineup," Rumberger said after getting some sound pitching from Jason Lukasek, Chris Hardy and Mike Thackberry against de Porres.

"We're a capable team," he said. "It's just a question of who's going to show up for each game."

"It was nice to win a doubleheader. I don't think we've done that for two years."

John Glenn divides pair with Dearborn

BASEBALL

The evidence pointed in the direction of Dearborn Westland John Glenn and host Dearborn High divided a baseball doubleheader.

In the opener, Glenn racked up 16 hits, including three homers, en route to a 16-5 triumph in the opener.

Brandon Aljony clubbed a grand slam to highlight an eight-run fourth inning for Glenn. Winning pitcher Jeff Mitchell added a two-run shot.

Chad Sansom, who went 3-for-3 with two walks and four runs scored, belted a two-run homer in the sixth inning.

Other Glenn offensive standouts included Dave Mijal, who collected four hits, including a triple and two RBI; Dan Feduchak, 3-for-3 with a double; and Mike Grant, 2-for-4.

Mitchell allowed five runs on four hits in six innings. He struck out eight and walked two.

In the nightcap, Dearborn scored seven runs in second inning and seven runs in the fourth, to win 17-12. The Big Red took advantage of five Rocket errors.

Sophomore Chris Pappas and winning pitcher Aaron Hippie each collected three hits for the Pioneers (8-8).

Glenn (3-7) was led by Aljony and Jeff Koslowki, who collected three hits apiece. Josh Day knocked in four runs, including a three-run homer in the seventh.

Brian Toth added two hits, including an RBI and two runs scored. Koslowki also had two RBI.

Glenn starter Andrew Copland, who went 3 1/3 innings, suffered the loss.

Haeger, who reached when he was hit by a pitch, wound up scoring on a passed ball.

CC stuck it to Union reliever Mike Hayes in the fourth inning, using a combination of strategy by Adam Kline, Smith and Wadowski, a double by Phil Marrone, Hill being hit by a pitch, a two-run homer by Haeger and two RU errors, for a 9-0 lead.

Tovey capped off the mercy win in the bottom of the fifth when his single scored Kline for the game-ending run, earning a little retribution for last season when Union handed CC its lone regular season loss in a 3-2 game.

"I'd like to think that was part of it, but there's not a lot of returning guys from last year who know what this meant," said Smith.

Macek gave up three runs and four hits, with two walks, in taking the loss. Hayes was credited for six runs and six hits with a strikeout.

"Macek's a good pitcher and Hayes is a good pitcher," said CC coach John Salter. "We're starting to come around with the bats. Two weeks ago, we were struggling at the plate."

The second game was no different than Entsminger earning the win (2-0) and the game was played under the Catholic League's 8-2 count.

The junior struck out eight batters, allowed just two walks and took a no-hitter into the fifth inning, when Dunning led off with a single and Justin Roisin drove him home two batters later with another single.

"That's his second strong outing in a row," said Salter, whose team hosts Detroit Country Day today in a 4:30 single game.

The Shamrocks banged out 11 hits — all off of RU starter Dmytro (1-1) — but the senior did strike out seven with just two walks. As in the opener, two big innings solidified the win. CC opened with a run in the second when Matt Loridas walked, moved to third on singles by Kline and Jake Viano, then scored when Entsminger was hit by a pitch.

It was 3-0 through three as Haeger and Hill singled and scored, while Wadowski added an RBI single and Kline brought home a run on a sacrifice fly.

The floodgates opened in a six-run sixth inning as Entsminger, Tovey, Loridas and Kline reached on singles. Marrone had a single and kept going to third on a two-base error while Viano had a double.

"It's been ages since we've lost a doubleheader and I can't remember this," said Entsminger. "We didn't hit and we made too many errors."

Crusaders sweep DH

The season continues to progress well for Madonna University's baseball team.

Madonna swept a doubleheader Saturday from visiting Aquinas College by scores of 9-2 and 2-1.

The Crusaders ended the twin bill 24-14, including a 13-9 record in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference. The Saints (25-12-2) are 11-7.

The second home game of the winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning of the first game to make a winner of Ryan Andrzejowski (4-2), who worked the final two innings.

Dan Hayer started and pitched a two-hitter, allowing both runs in the sixth on a home run by John Pike. He struck out four and walked three.

Derick Wolfe provided Madonna with its first win in the second inning, striking his fourth home run of the season.
