sentatives."

In August 1974 then-Vice President Ford took the oath for the nation's highest office on the resignation of Richard Nixon, who was facing impeachment in the aftermath of the Watergate scandal. Two years later, Ford lost one of the closest elections in history to Democrat Jimmy Carter.

"In August 1974 I said, 'Our constitution, our system of checks and balances, works. The people rule. It may not be the most efficient system of government but it has protected our freedoms.' I'm proud to have been a part of this century."

"We've been successful for 200 years. Whenever formidable challenges occur, our nation has prevailed. There is still the fundamental belief that the things that unite us are more enduring than that which divides us. All of us have striven together for a more perfect union."

About 700 guests heard Ford's speech at Laurel Manor in Livonia. Also honored at the dinner were Tyndale Student of the Year Pamela Gorka, a graduating business major who worked with inner-city homeless people and studied in Russia; Alumnus of the Year retired Army Chaplain Col. Henry Wake, who was awarded 16 personal decorations during his 30-year military career including two Bronze Stars and the Vietnam Service Medal with two battle stars; and Tyndale Citizen of the Year Gary Oster, director of information technologies and college librarian.

The late Dr. Bartlett Hess, founder of Ward Presbyterian Church and a 50-year member of the Tyndale board of directors, was honored with the 2000 Lifetime Achievement Award. It was accepted by his wife of 62 years, Margaret. The award was permanently renamed the Bartlett Hess Lifetime Achievement Award.

College President James McHann introduced King Ayl of the Republic of Togo. The college and the king's Royal Green Dragoon Guards have partnered to sponsor three students from Togo, West Africa, for four-year bachelor of arts degree programs beginning in the fall term of 2000.

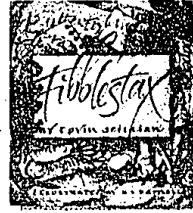

Clark Durant, a member of the Tyndale board and vice president of Munder Capital Management, told the crowd, "Tonight is about legacy, living lives of enduring meaning. Your support provides scholarships to help students achieve a Christ-centered education."

New Children's Book by WDIV Anchor, Devin Scillian

"I dreamed again of Fibblestax, sitting among his books, Peering into the candlelight with a calm, thoughtful look."

So begins the delightful fable of Fibblestax, and how he came to be the one who gives names to things. He has to battle the tricky, red-faced Carr, a man who "gives terrible names to wonderful things." The mayor of their town gives them five things to name, and the final one, "that very strange feeling, a dreamy kind of cheer, the feeling that makes you feel so good when a special friend is near," stumps Carr. But Fibblestax knows that feeling...

Community Band plans summer concerts

The Farmington Community Band will continue its traditional summer concert series by performing three concerts this summer in Heritage Park.

In addition to the three Heritage Park concerts, the band will also make two appearances as part of the Northville Clock Concert Series at the gazebo in downtown Northville.

Music is for the whole family so bring lawn chairs and blankets and enjoy a summer evening with the Farmington Community Band.

Opening the season will be the FCB Concert Band performing light summer music at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 8 at Heritage Park. The FCB Jazz Band will perform back to back concerts on June 29 and 30.

You can hear jazz music at its best at 8 p.m. on the 29th at Heritage Park, or catch the Jazz Band the following night at 7:30 p.m. at the Gazebo in Northville.

On Thursday, July 27, the Concert Band returns
