'Princess & Pea' on tap

A musical adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's classic fairy tale "The Princess and the Magic Pea" will be presented at Northville's historic Marquis Theatre weekends through June 10.

The Royal Kingdom is in a state of national emergency. Prince Peter is in search of a true princess to marry. But where to find one? And, how do you tell a true princess from an imposter? With the help of a magic pea, and a bed of many mattresses, perhaps the true princess will be revealed.

Performance dates and times are 2:30 p.m. Saturdays, June 3 and 10. Tickets are $7.50. For information, call 349-8110. The Marquis Theatre is at 135 E. Main St. in downtown Northville.

Choir available to perform

During the summer months, the Broe Tabernacle Therapeutic Choir will be available to perform in area nursing homes, churches, hospitals and community events.

The Broe Choir is a unique, traveling, a cappella choir composed of individuals recovering from traumatic brain injuries at Broe Rehabilitation Services, in Farmington Hills.

Performances are free of charge. To inquire about bookings, or to receive a free copy of the choir's CD/cassette, "The Music of Special People," call 248-474-2763.
