Senior trip to Mackinac set for fall

The City of Farmington Hills Senior Adult division with the 33rd annual Michigan Recreation and Parks Association present a Senior Mackinac Trip Sept. 30-Oct. 4 at Mackinac Island's historic Grand Hotel.

If you've ever wanted to enjoy the splendor of the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, this is your chance. The trip, which runs from a Saturday to a Wednesday, includes an array of activities plus all transportation, tips, four nights at the Grand Hotel, full breakfast each day, five-course dinner every night, dancing and a lot of extras. This is a lovely time of year to spend a few days in northern Michigan in grand style.

*You must be 50 years or older to attend. This is a first come, first serve trip and the last day to register is July 7. Cost is $699, double occupancy. Final payment will be due Aug. 25.

A murder-mystery evening, champagne reception, live comedy performance, horse drawn island tour, special Grand Hotel pricing on bicycle rentals, golf, photos, luncheons, feature movies and nightly dancing to the Grand Hotel Orchestra are included.

The trip will leave from the Costick Center in Farmington Hills. $200 per person is due at registration. Cancellations after Aug. 25 will not receive refunds; no exceptions. Cancellation insurance is advised. Trip forms are available at the reception desk at the senior citizen department in the Costick Center. Make checks payable to: Farmington Hills Department of Special Services.

Hospice home needs helpers

Farmington Hills Hospice Home provides excellent end of life care for residents in a home-like environment. Volunteers fill many roles at the Hospice Home and are an essential part of the patient care team. Opportunities to assist at the reception desk or with patient companionship are available. Hospice of Michigan provides a comprehensive orientation and training program for all volunteers. If interested, please call Linda Smith at (248) 585-3195 at Hospice of Michigan.

Miss Farmington readies for state pageant

Take two large totes, one large suitcase, a dozen pairs of shoes, two evening gowns, seven business suits, two costumes, a pair of swim suits and you have Miss Farmington's wardrobe for the Miss Michigan pageant.

Miss Farmington/Oakland County Leslie Reinbold will vie for the title of Miss Michigan in Muskegon next month.

On June 10, Reinhold, along with Ginny Morris, pageant executive director, and Jennifer Hoamke, a former Miss Farmington, leaves for Baker College in Muskegon for the week-long competition. Last year, Audrie Chernauckas, representing Redford Township but also a former Miss Farmington, was crowned with the state title.

Farmington area well-wishers are invited to attend a "Good Luck Send Off" gathering on Sunday June 4 from 6-8 p.m. at the Warner Mansion.

Tickets available
There are still a few tickets left for this year's Miss Farmington/Oakland County pageant to be held Wednesday, June 21, at the downtown Farmington Civic Theatre. Following the show, and in keeping with the theme "Cruise the Grand," the official kickoff to the Farmington Area Family Fest, dance the night away in the parking lot of Page's Food and Spirits with the sounds of the 1950s and '60s.

For ticket information, call
Jennifer Parks at 248-473-1841.

■ Farmington area well wishers are invited to attend a Good Luck Send-off gathering for Leslie Reinbold on Sunday, June 4, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Warner Mansion.
