Hixon—To what does Landit owe his seat in the senate? Dixon—To his wife, I dare say. She had the money, you know.

Humorous Tarust.

"How—"
The savage chief held a glittering spear near the captive missionary.
"—do you like thia?"
"—do you like thia?"
"His tone was not facetious, but tha captive was undismayed.
"Well, if you ask me—"
"Well, if you ask me—
"He glanced at the weapon, the propinguity of which was not comforting.
"—It goes against my atomach!"
Unfortunately, however, the captive was in a locality "where there is no market for humor, and the end came soon.

Making Good.

"Sire." expostulated Nero's condidential adviser. "what do you propose to do to rebabilitate this burning city of Rome so that its inhabitants will not hold the devastating confineration against you?"
"Oh, fiddle." retorted Nero.
Which he did.

Her Opportunity.

Edith—Isn't Alice the Jucky girl?
Just as she had decided to throw Jack over he broke the engagement.

Tom—Well?

Edith—Well, now she's going to sue him for breach of promise.
