Plymouth Salem rode the reliable arm of Tiffany Grubough and the speedy legs of Rachel Jones to capture its fourth straight Western Lakes Activities Association girls track title Wednesday night at Farmington High.

"The Rocks, who came up just 3 1/2 points short of winning the Division 1 regional May 19 at Redford Union, held off challenges from Livonia Stevenson and Walled Lake Central to win the coveted WLAA title.

Salem led the 12-school field with 120.65 points, while Stevenson and Central finished with 106.6 and 104, respectively. See final results.

Grubough racked up her usual 20 points by successfully defending both her Western Lakes titles in the shot put (40 feet, 9 3/8 inches) discus (131-0).

Menniville, Jones took a first in the 400-meter dash (1:00.2) and teamed up with Autumn Hicks, Michelle Bonior and Bryno DeNeen to capture the 200 relay (1:46.4).

Jones also placed second in the 100 and 200 dashes with times of 12.4 and 26.8, respectively.

Both Grubough and Jones are seniors.

"This is the first senior class that has won it four times in a row," said Salem coach Mark Gregor, who donned his lucky track cap for the occasion. "They liked the idea of doing that all season. We talked about it at the end of the year and the seniors really worked long and hard during the off-season to give themselves a chance."

Salem's fourth straight Western Lakes conquest, however, did not come without some anxious moments.

The Rocks led by almost 30 points through the 1,600 run, but the contenders, Stevenson and Central, moved to within 20 points after Salem was disqualified in the next event, the 400 relay.

"We did a lot of jogging in that race because we had a couple kids banged up and we took Jones out of it," Gregor explained. "We had three subs in there and I did a pretty good job until the last exchange."

But Salem padded its lead back up to 36 points when Jones captured the 400. Teammates Hicks and DeNeen also finished third and seventh, respectively.

"We came right back and took 18 points," Gregor said. "That was huge."

Stevenson and Central closed the gap later in the meet, but Salem's place on the top podium had already been safely secured.

Grubough, the defending state discus champ, tried to take aim at two long-standing WLAA records set by Farmington Hills Harrison's Alice Shortt, who established marks of 43-3 1/2 in the shot put and 138-1 in the discus back in 1993.

Wayne State on a scholarship in the fall. "I wanted it because my coach (Jay Blaylock) has a league record in the boys."

But Grubough was more focused on winning team titles, especially for her senior class.

"We've talked about it from the beginning of the season," she said. "It's been one of our main goals along with the regional. We came up just short in the regional, so we came in here and fought as hard as we could."

Stevenson coach Paul Holmberg should be glad the two Salem senior standouts are graduating.

"It's seems Jones and Grubough have been around eight years," he said. "They just seem to build up a big lead early and ride it in."

3,200 as Heather Vandette added a second and Sara Pilon took sixth. Those 21 points pulled Stevenson to within 14 points of the Rocks with one race (the 1,600 relay) to go.

"We've lived off our distance kids all year," Holmberg said. "People talk all the time about Parker, but we have Vandette, Sara Pilon and Teasa Tarolo jump in there and do their part."

And Andrea is out there running for the team. Because she runs so many events. She's not fresh and not able to go after school records because she's running four races.

Another individual standout was Westland John Glenn junior LaTasha Chandler, who won the 100 hurdles (1:4.9) and teamed up with Elizabeth Easter, Felicia Barnett and She-Nelle Brown for a win in the 400 relay (2:22).

Lyonia Churchill's 3,200 relay squad of Wally Westrick, Susan Duncan, Rachel Wodyka and Michelle Phillips, which set a school record Friday at the regional (10:04.8), took WLAA title in 10:05.0.
