

It's time for bowlers to reap post-season honors

TEN-PIN ALLEY
The banquet for the two All-Star leagues was held last Tuesday night at St. Mary's Cultural Center in Livonia.

The Popul All-Star Classic League bowls on Tuesdays at Thunderbowl in the arena, and the Budweiser All-Star Traveling Classic at various lanes in this area.

Many of the bowlers compete in both leagues, which are considered to be the finest top level leagues in the nation.

Banquet time means much more than just a delicious feast. It means the trophy people really want to work over.

This was the 65th year for the Detroit All-Star, which was originated by the great Joe Norris in 1934.

It was the first year for female bowlers to come forth and compete along with the men, as Angela Witt of Westland, Linda Higgenall, Cyndi Black and Lisa Keough gained membership in the American Bowling Congress and became eligible.

(Note: Male bowlers may not bow in Women's International Bowling Congress leagues.)

and with an 817 and 805 series, took honors as "King of Bowlers" (Bowler of the Year).

Well as the Anasra's Big Boy team, which won the annual John P. Gavic Cup.

Bowlers of the Month include: Sept. - Todd Kurovski, 242.87; Oct. - Travis Franz, 243.02; Nov. - John Katsano, 236.40; Dec. - Andy Schenkel, 241.11; Jan. - Larry Walker, 242.17; Feb. - Quintin Greene, 241.13; March - Chris Mueller, 245.06; April - Larry Walker, 241.33.

Rookie of the Year was Arnie Goltzman of Farmington Hills. Most improved bowler was Bob Castle at plus-14.81 pins.

Ernie Segura earned high series honors with 833 and 21 bowlers rolled perfect games including Leo Snow of Farmington, Dan Smith of Farmington Hills, and Mike Rodford, along with Westlanders Terry Tesarz and Jeff Herzog.

The Budweiser All-Star Traveling Classic is comprised of many of the same bowlers and their championship was won by Mike Rodford, 241.19. He also took high game honors with 1,270 as well as high series at 3,651.

The happy team members include Chris Sand, Mike Winstager, Kelly Bennett, Jason Lewis, Jay Lang and Kerry Krefl.

The league had six 300 games including one by Canton's Ken Kosick.

Travel leagues generally do not score as high as home-based leagues with a different house and lane condition every week.

In addition to the crowning of the champions, there were several awards with Hall-of-Famer Tony Lindemann receiving the Ray Kowalski Memorial Award. Matt Florito was presented the Golden Quill award for bowling journalism. (I will win that one someday, I hope.)

The Joe Paulus Sportsmanship Award went to Tom Renume and Anasra's Big Boy team won the K&R Award for most combined victories in both leagues.

Each member of that team was presented with a K&R triple bowling bag on wheels which really came in handy to carry all of the trophies home. It is nice to see a long standing tradition keep on going the way it has and that our own great bowlers from the Observerland communities were so prominent in the awards banquet.

The Colonel has returned. That name is applied to Irving (Hank) Kemppner, who was a teammate of mine for many years, going back to the 1960s when we were league champions in one of the old Masonic Lodge leagues.

Hank is not a big guy, nor was he a power shooter. His average was modest, but he had the heart of a tiger on the lanes, and nobody tried harder or wanted to win more than the Colonel (USAF-Retired).

If the team needed a mark, he was always the one who came through. Now retired to greener pastures in Arizona, he and his wife, Mary returned to attend our daughter's wedding last week in Grand Rapids.

I am sure that some of his competitive fire was a result of having served in a famous military unit, the Flying Tigers, not as one of the early mercenaries, but with the 14th Air Force.

This man is truly one of our nation's heroes, having fought against what was then a formidable enemy in the Far East and Pacific. He then settled down in Detroit to work in the public sector while still active in the U.S. Air Force Reserves.

Hank does not bowl anymore, but the visit brought back lots of fond memories.

The Greater Detroit Bowling Association will hold its 29th annual Golf Outing at 9 a.m. Monday, June 19 at Bogie Lake Golf Club, 11231 Bogie Lake Road in White Lake.

Those interested call the association office for entry forms. The entry fee is $70 for each man including electric cart, beer or pop on the course, hot dogs & chips at the turn, a steak dinner and prizes.

The outing is limited to 144 players and to GDBA member only. You do not have to be an accomplished golfer, nor will you need an established handicap as the Hallway System will be used.

There will be approximately 1,500 in prizes and each man will get three golf balls and will win at least one prize.

Hey! I might go myself and I don't even know which end of the club to hold, it sounds like fun.

For more information, call Greater Detroit Bowling Association at (810) 773-6350.

Summer leagues start at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 6 at Wayne Bowl with the Majors Scholarship Singles for advanced Junior/Senior bowlers.

Friday Night Majors start at 7 p.m. June 9 for 10 weeks (includes T-shirts and trophies). The 10-week Tuesday Morning Bumpers and Junior/Seniors at 10 a.m. starts June 2. The Western Wayne Youth Traveling Classic League meet-up is Saturday-Sunday, Aug. 12-13.
