

Blues, Rattlers earn tournament trophies

The South Farmington Blues and the Michigan Rattlers were big winners on Memorial Day weekend, taking home tournament championship trophies.

The 12-and-under Blues won the North Oakland Baseball Federation title with an 11-7 victory over the St. Clair Shores Mariners.

South Farmington trailed 4-2 until its bats came alive in the fourth inning. RBI hits by Ryan Mills, Luke Nemes and Matt Cummings put the Blues ahead 5-2.

Phillip Scott got the pitching victory and Stephen Fink a save, striking out four of the last six batters.

The Blues opened the tournament with an 8-2 victory over the Troy Cardinals. Thomas Couch allowed three hits in four innings to secure the win. Jason Cummings had a bases-loaded double to get the Blues rolling in the second inning. Scott, Nemes and Matt Cummings had two hits each and combined to drive in five runs.

Next up were the Troy Diamondbacks. Defense and strong pitching carried the Blues to a 5-2 victory.

Clutch plays by outfielders Ryan Gendron and Brandon Chomko kept the Blues in the lead.

Adam Dubois knocked in the game-winning run with a double, and he also scored two runs. Couch, Scott and Fink combined for a four-hitter.

It was solid defense again that lifted the Blues to a 6-1 victory over the Genesee Stars.

This time it was Brent Hable and Tim Nagrocki who made great plays with their gloves to help the Blues' cause.

South Farmington wasted a fine pitching performance by Jason Cummings in the next game, which resulted in a loss to the Mariners.

The only offensive highlights were two hits each by Mills and Chomko.

The Blues were able to avenge that loss, however, and win the championship by beating the Mariners in the rematch.

"This team showed character, coming back to win the final game," Blues manager Jay Cummings said. "It was a total team effort."

"We play a tough regular-season schedule in the Midwest Super League, and that helped prepare us for this tournament."

Rattlers own Great Lakes The 12-year-old Rattlers took first-place honors at the USSSA Michigan Great Lakes Memorial Classic in Canton.

The Farmington-based ballclub was led by pitcher Steve Kish's .714 slugging percentage and shortstop Drew Kahle's .684 batting average.

Following an opening game loss, the Rattlers had to win the championship the hard way, going undefeated for the remainder of the tournament.

Pitcher Justin Goltz started against the Dearborn Heights Raptors and got the victory in an 8-4 win. Center fielder Matt Pickens was 3-for-4.

Blues win trophy: The members of the South Farmington Blues 12-and-under baseball team are (front row, left to right) Brent Hable, Luke Nemes, Tim Nagrocki, Matt Cummings, (middle row) Phillip Scott, Brandon Chomko, Steve Fink, Jason Cummings, Adam Dubois, Ryan Gendron, Thomas Couch, (back row) coach Dave Fink, Ryan Mills, coach Bob Mills, manager Jay Cummings and coach Jeff Gendron.

On Memorial Day, Andrew Davis, David Collins and Kish combined to pitch a no-hitter as the Rattlers routed the Brighton Tigers, 14-0.

The pitching trio allowed only two Tigers to reach second base. The big hitter for the Rattlers was second baseman Chris Rachal, who was 4-for-4.

The Rattlers couldn't afford to let up against the Ann Arbor Mustangs and didn't, winning 11-7 behind the pitching of tournament MVP Alan Oaks and key hits from Kyle Anderson and Anthony Stodulski.

In the championship game, the Rattlers faced the undefeated Michigan Indians but prevailed with a 9-8 victory.

The hitting of first baseman Jeff Patz (4-for-4) and catcher Ben Davis (3-for-4) helped to make Stodulski the winning pitcher.

With their tournament triumph, the Rattlers earned a berth in the USSSA World Series in Atlanta, Ga.

Blues trounce opponents The 11-and-under Blues overpowered the opposition and captured the Memorial Classic championship at Liberty Park in Sterling Heights May 27-29.

South Farmington posted more victories over the Rochester Rockies in the semifinals, 13-6, and the Coughlin Cubs in the final, 12-4.

In early-round games, the Blues demolished Troy, 12-0, Fonten, 16-0, and Sylvania (Ohio), 8-3.

The offense was led by timely, extra-base hits from Zak Koruchowski, Jon Castino, Jeff Gorec-
