Flash wins U-12 tournament championship

The Farmington Flash, an under-12 girls premier soccer team, won its first tournament at the 18th Annual Canton Invitational on Memorial Day weekend.

The tournament is one of the largest in the Midwest, consisting of almost 300 teams from Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Canada.

On the opening night, the Flash beat the Saline Stingers, 3-0, with goals from Chrissy Fleck, Rachel Thompson and Kelsey Hogan. The defense was backed up by goalie Mona Shah.

"It was our first dominating win of the season and a real confidence boost for the girls," Flash coach Scott Cornell said.

On Saturday evening, the Flash faced off with the Rockford

Flash and again won, 3-0, with two goals by Jennifer West and Amy Dusek scoring the third.

Once again, Shah led a strong defensive effort in goal, shutting out an aggressive SCOR team.

In the pouring rain Sunday morning, the Flash played against the Battle Creek Rockers and won 4-0.

The goals were spread among four players: Laura Kakos, Nicole Stephen, Fleck and Hogan. The team's third shutout was led by Ashley Avery in goal.

"The game became a test of will power while playing in the driving rain and mud," Cornell said, adding the win assured the Flash of a place in the finals.

"The goal from the start of the tournament was to reach and win the finals. The team played unselfishly toward that end."

In the final Sunday afternoon, the Flash defeated the Sterling-Clinton Soccer Club Storm on a muddy field as a result of the earlier rain.

The Storm played aggressively in the first 10 minutes and carried the play to the Flash.

In the 16th minute, Dusek scored the Flash's first goal, "and you could sense a momentum swing," Cornell said.

Dusek scored a second goal, and that was followed by a goal by Adrienne Sundquist. The Flash led 3-0 at halftime and had one more goal by Jessica Austin. Avery was in goal again.

Following the game, the girls celebrated their championship by sliding through the mud covering the middle of the field.

"It was a tremendous tournament for the girls, winning all four games without having a goal scored against us," Cornell said.

"These girls continue to impress me with their commitment and dedication to this team and program."

The Flash is in its final two weeks of the season, having trained and played together since June, 1999 in the Premier Division of the Michigan State Youth Soccer League.

The Flash travels to Flint to compete in its last tournament of the year next weekend.

"We began practice in July and never stopped working hard throughout the year," Cornell said. "The premier program is very demanding, and these girls handled every challenge. I couldn't be prouder of them."

Tryouts for the under-13 premier team will be 6-8 p.m. June 16 and 19 at Little Caesars Field No. 3.

The Flash roster consists of Amy Dusek, Mona Shah and Jennifer West; Rachel Thompson; Ashley Avery, Lynette Camaj, Chrissy Fleck, Laura Kakos, Kristina Navas, Adrienne Sundquist and Kim Zabel of Farmington Hills; Jessica Austin, Kelsey Hogan, Erica Myrold and Rachel Thompson of Livonia; Nicole Stephen, Novi; and Justin Cornell, West Bloomfield.

ine Brouillette, Molly Jud and Julie Gottlicher combine to shut down the Northville offense, otherwise.

Tweedy, Smart and Lorianne DeDomenico did an outstanding job in the midfield, as did both Kolacki at forward, Montgomery added.

"Even though she didn't score, (Kolacki) did a good job getting back and playing defense and getting back and having some scoring opportunities," he said.

Montgomery said he was pleased with the overall season — his first with the Farmington girls varsity team.

"We won every game we were expected to win," he said. "I told the girls I thought we would have 10 or 11 victories and to get 11 we would have to upset someone. That was supposed to be today."

"The girls really showed a lot of heart. They wanted this game, and I'm very proud of them. We know it was going to take an outstanding effort to beat (Northville), and they hung in there."

LADYWOOD 3, HARRISON 0: Megan Kogut scored twice Thursday, propelling Livonia Ladywood to a 3-0 Division 2 district victory over Farmington Harrison in a game played at North Farmington.

Ladywood, which improved to 5-11-1 on the season, earned a berth in the Saturday district final against Northville. (Results will appear in Tuesday's Observer).

Harrison bowed out at 4-10-1 overall. Kogut's first goal came on an assist from Stacey Casley to make it 1-0 at intermission.

Kogut scored again in the second half from Katie Rozum and Melissa Harekas erased any doubt with Livonia's third and final goal from Stefanie Stuchura.

"Everyone was working hard together," Ladywood coach Jill Logsdon said. "We passed great and moved the ball up the field. Stuchura was really a playmaker, setting up all the goals."

Ladywood goalkeeper Vit Obrecht was also outstanding in the victory, according to Logsdon.
