The Father's Role
The father's role has changed over the past few decades and the good father in today's society must wear many hats. We no longer think of today's family as a father that just works outside the home and the mother as the one who manages the home responsibilities and the children. Today, many parents both work outside of the home, and the father that shares the home chores and responsibilities wins the love and admiration of his family. A father requires nothing more from his children than their love, respect and their honest effort to be the best that they can be. Father's teach by their example, and qualities such as kindness, honesty, integrity and love of God and family, can all be passed down to their children. The love that fathers have for their children is a gift from God, and fathers who express their love to their children are double blessed when they hear their children say in return, "I love you too, Dad."
As kind as a father is to his children, so kind is the Lord to those who honor him.
Good News Bible Psalm 103:13
