coach Mike Teachman said of the Ladywood comeback. "Obviously, their strategy was to take a lot of pitches and get Lindsey rattled, because they did have a very small strike zone that day. I'm glad it wasn't won on a ball four with the bases loaded. We had been operating on the edge all year. Every pitch, every at-bat meant something. It played out that way, too."

In the second inning, Harrison scored twice on Gayle Torner's RBI single and Schrock's RBI groundout.

But the Hawks left the bases full in a scoreless third, and Teachman thought that was the turning point in the game.

With one out, there was confusion as to whether Fallon, the Ladywood pitcher, caught a low liner off Jenelle Wellings' bat or stopped it in the dirt.

That resulted in a force at the plate and a 1-2-6 double play when a Harrison runner, unsure where she should be, was caught off base.

"If (Wellings) gets a normal connection there, we might be looking at an 8-1 lead," Teachman said.

Then Ladywood might begin to think "We brought these kids up from the JV; maybe it's time to empty the tank."

The Hawks added three in the fifth without a hit, however. They did it with three walks, Kim Spaulding's RBI groundout, a wild pitch and an error.

Ladywood (11-22) got two back in the bottom of the fifth to get within two runs, 5-3.

Barnes and Patty Kolinski drew back-to-back walks to start. A wild pitch scored Barnes, and Wilkinson hit a two-out double down the right-field line to score Kolinski.

Cathie Rospierki, who had an RBI groundout in the second inning, singled and scored on a wild pitch in the sixth as the Blazers pulled within a run, 6-4.

Good connection: Senior Jenny Wingert drove in a run with a sacrifice fly to give Harrison a 6-5 lead.

"My catcher hurt her hand in the first game, and the hand had swollen up," Ladywood coach Bob Lufek said. "But she wanted to play; she's a gamer. Brandon is very good, too. We knew we had to play a perfect game. Brandon is the best stopping and bunting team in high school ball. They put it right where you aren't."

"That scenario repeated itself when Sato came to bat in the second inning, enabling Brandon's Jessica McCullough to score a second run.

Jennifer Little, who was 3-for-4 and scored two runs, hit a leadoff double in the third inning and scored on Candace Fonton's single. The score remained 3-0 until the sixth.

Ladywood's Michele Moros pitched the first four innings and took the loss, allowing six hits and one walk, but the Blazers kept the score close until the seventh as Shawn Falcon followed with two scoreless innings.

"I could see Livonia was a batter," Peters said. "I have a lot of respect for them after seeing that first game."

Rams defeat Wolves

The Michigan Lake Area Rams held off a seventh inning rally and wound up beating the Michigan Wolves, 6-3, on Monday in a battle for first place in the Little Caea's 14-and-under Elite Division.

The Rams got out of a bases-loaded jam in the fourth inning, then held off a two-run rally in the seventh by the Wolves to preserve the win.

Chris Rigley (Redford) was 2-for-4, scored twice, stole two bases and homered, while earning the win on the mound with five strikeouts. Mike Monterey (Farmington) also homered and had two RBI, while Mike Krause (Garden City) was 2-for-4 and scored two runs. The Rams improved to 8-3 overall and 5-1 in the league, a game ahead of the Wolves at 4-1.

Mike Macek (Redford) was 4-for-5 with two homers, two singles, six RBI and scored three runs to pace the Rams past Adray Appliance, 14-3, on Friday. Mike Hayes (Redford Union) was 3-for-5 with three RBI and two runs scored, while Peter Varon and Chris Mitchell also had two hits and two runs scored apiece.

Sean O'Connor (Redford) took the win, giving up just one hit and two runs, with three walks and four strikeouts.

The Rams opened 18-and-under play with a win Sunday, as they came from behind for a 9-2 win over the New Boston Hurons.

Matt Peck (Redford) was 2-for-2 with two RBI and three runs scored, while Derrick Casper was 3-for-4 with two RBI. Mark Kehoe got the win, giving up five hits and striking out seven.
