kind to me," said Fryer. "In four rounds, three have been par or less. Now, if they'd only have the Buick Open qualifier at Arbor Hills."

Fryer started the day with a 72 on the first 18, "and probably could have shot three or four strokes better," said the 1993 Birmingham Brother Rice graduate. "At that point, my goal was to get into the top five to qualify for the 2001 Michigan Open."

He started his second round on the second hole and played the next nine in 1-over par, 37. A birdie at 11 brought him back to even, but the crusher came on the par-5 14th hole.

"I hit my driver, then pulled out my Adams 3-wood on the second shot, about 240 out, and said to Bill Sweet, the Adams representative, 'This better go on the green," said Fryer.

The ball landed 20 feet from the pin and Fryer made the eagle putt. Birdies on 18 and 1 left him with a 68 for the round. Meanwhile, first-round co-leaders Cairns and Harding shot 71 in the second round to force a playoff.

"I was nervous, especially after the first shot," said Fryer. "Harding hit his ball about 320 yards and I went 260 into the left rough. But the second shot landed about the same spot that my ball did when I played the hole 20 minutes earlier. They missed their putts. And as soon as I stepped over mine, I got comfortable. Sure enough, it went in."

The 20-foot sidehill birdie putt gave Fryer the winner's check that has already been spent for air conditioning in the Ferndale home he and his wife, Carrie, bought. It qualified him for next year's Michigan Open and gave him a 20-year exemption into the Tournament of Champions in Boyne, as well as the National State Assistant tourney later this year in Port St. Lucie, Fla.

Fryer wasn't the only Western assistant to do well. Randy Grebeck shot 149 (76-73) and earned $180.

While the goodies and the exemptions are fine, getting people to know who you are in order to lose the assistant's label is the big thing.

"The name recognition is the biggest thing," Fryer said. "And so many people have helped me. (Western head pro) Kevin LaBramboise, I've known forever. I'm glad I have friends like that to help me."
