Coach Larry Brenner had an inkling early in the spring that this was going to be a breakout year for his Wayne Memorial girls soccer team.

"This is the first group where we had an unofficial JV team. They all started out together as ninth graders," Brenner said. "Plus, we only had three graduates from the year before."

The Zebras made a dramatic improvement from their 7-7-2 season in 1999. This spring, Brenner's squad finished 16-4-1 overall, best in school history, and won the Moga Conference's Blue Division record with a 13-0-1 record.

Their season came to an end with a 1-0 loss to host Dearborn in the Division I district championship.

"Basically the formula of our success was total teamwork," said Brenner. "They were very unselfish. They would rather pass off than score."

Brenner, a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, is a counselor at Franklin Middle School. He has been employed by the Wayne-Westland Schools the past 30 years.

Before launching a varsity program at Wayne, Brenner coached JV soccer at South Lyon and spent time in both the Wayne-Westland and Little Caesars youth soccer leagues (where both of his sons played soccer). Wayne will be hard hit by graduation as All-Blue Division honoree Kristina McCahill, Jenny Clark and Christine Raupp will be gone.

But 28-goal scorer Alana Green, a sophomore, returns.

"We'll be hurting in a couple of spots, but we have some JV kids coming up who are chomping at the bit," Brenner said.

As for this year's All-Observer first team, many are repeat selections.

Among the list are Andrea Sied, Lindsay Gualck and Cheryl Fox, all of Livonia Stevenson; Anne Morrell, Plymouth Canton; and Christen Shull, Plymouth Salem.

Introducing the 2000 All-Observer Girls Soccer Team:

ALL-AREA FIRST TEAM

Anne Morrell, forward, Ply. Canton: The Junior led the Chicks in scoring with 22 goals and eight assists. She was voted co-captain of the Miss Soccer award, tied with Troy Athens' Tiffany Leskowiak.

Morrell made the all-state team and was a Parade All-American.

"She was the catalyst of our team," Canton coach Don Smith said. "She was our main go-go person. She brought up the level of play of the other players. She was definitely one of the main reasons we were runners-up at state."

Lindsay Gualck, forward, Stevenson: Gualck finished the year with 20 goals and eight assists, raising her three-year career totals to 66 goal and 30 assists.

She made All-Western Lakes, All-District, All-Region and first-team Michigan Dream Team. She is also an All-State All-America and member of the U.S. National under-16 squad.

"Lindsay's the best pure soccer talent I've ever coached," Stevenson coach Jim Kimble said. "She's strong, fast, creative and very dangerous."

"She's very unselfish and is always a threat while in the game. Her commitment to fitness and hard work took her to another level this year."

"2001 should be very exciting."
