All-Observer team

"He was outstanding in the field and made many big plays," Herrington said, adding Hadley moved from third base to shortstop this year. "That's where you put your best fielder, and that's what he was for us.

"We loved having him lead off, because we knew he could get on and steal second base. He didn't have to wait for the bunt, and that's why he ended up scoring 33 runs."

Jared Kazmierczak, IF, Thurston: How much did Kazmierczak mean to the Eagles? He had a 5-4 record pitching and a save to go with his 2.70 ERA. His five wins and one save means he figured in 75 percent of the Eagles' wins.

He hit .495 with 15 doubles, four homers and 24 RBI; he had a slugging percentage of .880 and struck out just once in 72 at-bats. When he wasn't pitching, he split his time between shortstop, third base and centerfield and made exactly one error.

"In all the years I've been coaching in high school or American Legion, he's as good a talent as I've ever coached," said Thurston coach Bob Snell. "Anywhere you put him, he'll be fine. And I mean anywhere. He is an outstanding player."

Oliver Wolcott, IF, Plymouth Canton: Wolcott has played on varsity since his freshman year and made all-conference and all-district this season. He has a 4.0 GPA and was named an all-district academic.

Wolcott had 35 hits, scored 30 runs and drove-in 22 runners in 89 at bats. He struck out 10 times and walked 19.

"Oliver is a very hard worker and can switch hit," Canton coach Scott Dickey said. "He is one of the best infielders in the area. I'm looking forward for his senior year."

Mike Wadowski, IF, Catholic Central: Wadowski did the job both offensively and defensively for CC, hitting .330 with 29 hits, 28 runs scored, a team-leading eight homers and eight more doubles. Defensively, he had a .972 fielding percentage with just four errors.

"And that's a nice job with as many chances as a first baseman gets," said Salter. He's probably our most intense player in terms of baseball. He's got a good attitude and is a hard worker. I think he'll be one of the top hitters in the area next year."

Mike Hayes, IF, Redford Union: Hayes has been one of the steadiest Panthers over the last three years. He hit .419 with 52 hits, a school-record 124 at-bats, an on base average of .448 and 14 doubles. In those 124 at bats, he struck out just six times.

"He's the one who got on base to give Macek all of those RBI," said Berryman. "He's been our starting shortstop and leadoff hitter since his sophomore year. He's does whatever you ask him. He plays short, he pitches, been a closer and a starter. He's just a great kid that plays ball."

Josh Odom, OF, Livonia Churchill: The senior left fielder enjoyed a banner offensive season hitting .394 (31 for 79) with six doubles, two triples and five homers.

The 6-foot-2, 185-pound Odom also knocked in 37 runs and scored 27 times. He slugged at a .709 clip and had an on-base percentage of .542.

"Josh has always been an excellent hitter and has power," Churchill assistant coach Joe Mercier said. "He's got stronger in the field this year because he really worked on his defense.

"He played fall baseball and that helped him defensively."

Odom, considering Madonna University, is currently playing for the Michigan Braves of the Connie Mack summer baseball circuit."

Robbie Hudson, OF, Garden City: Hudson, a second-team all-stater, was the offensive leader for the Cougars as he hit .458, scored 33 runs, had 12 doubles, 13 stolen bases and had 37 RBI — tops on the team in all five categories.

Hudson also racked up a 6-4 record with a 2.56 era and had 90 stokeouts in 60 innings on the mound.

"In other words, he led us in most every category," said Herman. "He's just about the best hitter I've ever coached or seen. He can hit the best pitchers and hits them better. He is just so naturally talented. He won't sit in a slump for a month. He just fixes the problem."

Jason Lukasik, OF, Plymouth Salem: Lukasik led the Rocks in eight offensive categories, including batting average (.423), slugging percentage (.857), home runs (nine), RBI (35) and hits (44).

"He hit a home run every 11 at bats," Salem coach Dale Rumberger said. "Those are Ruthian numbers. If he kept up that pace for 162 games, he would have hit 56 home runs."

Lukasik was the Rocks' top pitcher with an ERA of 2.23 and a record of 8-2. He struck out 51 batters and walked 46 in 56⅓ innings pitched.

Lukasik is undecided on where to go to college. He has been accepted at Michigan State University, [illegible] and Adrian.

"I think colleges are scouting him wrong," Rumberger said. "[illegible] a pitcher but not a [illegible]."

"He came into our program as a pitcher and developed into an outstanding hitter."

Lukasik's 44 hits ties a school record for most hits in a season.

"He was a quiet leader," Rumberger said. "He let his bat do the talking. He's the hardest working kid around.

"It's going to be hard not writing his name on the lineup sheet. I wish he would come back for one more season."

Brian Williams, OF, Catholic Central: Williams struggled the first half of the season and was hitting just .190 after 12 games. The center fielder bounced back to wind up with a .[illegible] average, scored 24 runs, had eight doubles and finished with an on-base average of .[illegible].

The first-team All-Observer hockey player probably saved the season for the Shamrocks with a defensive gem, robbing Novi of a two-run homer and turning it into a long out with an over-the-fence catch.

"He really came on late," said Williams. "He [illegible] has an accurate throwing arm and is just a great kid to coach. He's a tremendous athlete."

Dan Wilson, OF, Livonia Stevenson: The speedy outfielder was captain of the Spartans. He became the school's all-time steals leader (29).

Wilson finished with a .3[illegible] average (31-for-100) with two doubles and two triples. He scored 21 runs and had 12 RBI. He struck out just six times.

But his greatest attribute was defense. He made only one error, and his fielding average was .927.

On the mound, Wilson was 2-2 with two saves and a 2.44 ERA.
