

A COURT ROOM SCENE from the forthcoming drama, "Witness for the Prosecution," is rehearsed by three cast members of the Wayne Civic Players. In the scene above, Ginnie Tadlock is in the witness chair being questioned by Prosecuting Attorney Ed Moorehead (right) with Bob Roy, as the judge, listening. The mystery by Agatha Christie will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 22-23, and at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 24, in the John Glenn High School auditorium, 36105 Marquette, west of Wayne, in Westland. Director of the production is Robert Wagner. Tickets are available from members of the theater group and also at the door.

'Arsenic' Opens In Plymouth

The Plymouth Theatre Guild's comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" will open for a three-day run—Nov. 14, 15 & 16, Thursday through Saturday. Those in charge of set design and construction have been especially adept in reproducing a difficult setting. This play has an unusual number of men, which promises much action, especially when the dynamic Teddy prepares to dig up the Panama Canal.

"Arsenic" has the usual love angle, with Sandra Richards as Elaine Harper, and Milo Jordan as Mortimer Brewster. Other members of the cast are Richard Brown as the Rev. Dr. Harper and Jake Rumpf as Mr. Witherspoon. Ron Rupert, Jerry French, and Jerry Holt, of the Nankin Players, are the "Law and Order Boys." Production for this show is a deviation from the regular form. Members of the board of governors have assumed duties of chairmen of the production crews. Other members of the guild have worked tirelessly in carrying out the many jobs necessary before a play opens.

There is still time to buy season tickets at $3. A musical and another three-act play are scheduled for later in the season. Single admission for "Arsenic" is $1.50 for adults, and 75 cents for students. Tickets are also available at the door.

Stolen Car Doesn't Mix

Police arrested two teenagers, one a juvenile, on a charge of possession of a stolen automobile after discovering the youths working on the car in a school parking lot Saturday morning.

The patrolmen said they made the arrest when they found that car registration numbers did not check out properly.
