

Capt. Kenneth Gregory Is Wed In Military Rites

In a military wedding at Fort Knox, Ky., Capt. Kenneth Gregory recently claimed Cecilia Ann Mehlick as his bride.

Cpt. Gregory is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Gregory, of Plymouth. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Mehlick of Springfield, Ill. Maj. Alvin E. Greenburg, Army chaplain, officiated for the double-ring rites in the Fort Knox Main Post Chapel.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk peau de sole empire gown with long, tapered sleeves and a softened A-line skirt. Tiny covered buttons accented the chapel-length wateau train that fell from a yoke of English mesh.

Her silk illusion veil fell from a peau de sole petaled headpiece with seed pearls and crystal accents.

Two sisters of the bride attended her, Angela Mehlick as maid of honor and Mrs. Charles Harris, of Buffalo, as matron of honor.

The bridegroom's sister, Cheri Lynn, was the junior bridesmaid.

THE BEST MAN was Capt. Edward Underwood and the groomsmen were Capt. Joseph Porter; Capt. Michael Wright and Capt. Richard Settimo were ushers. All are stationed at Fort Knox.

The flower girl was Shelley

Ann Underwood and the ring bearer was Edward R. Underwood, of Fort Knox.

The newlyweds will live in Manhattan, Kan., where the bridegroom will be an ROTC instructor at Kansas State University.

ROBERTA WILLING

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Willing of Detroit, announce the engagement of their daughter, Roberta Diane, to Charles Aimone, son of Mrs. Frank Aimone of Taylor, and the late Mr. Aimone. The bride-to-be is a 1961 graduate of Redford High School and graduated from the University of Michigan in 1965. She is teaching at Marshall Elementary School in Livonia. Her fiancé is a 1965 graduate of Michigan State University and is taking graduate courses in film at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles. A Jan. 24 wedding is planned.

CAROL KAMINSKI

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kaminski, of Barkley Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Gerald B. Whittaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whittaker, of Detroit. The bride-elect is a 1966 graduate of Bentley High School and attended Cleary College, Ypsilanti. Her fiancé graduated in 1966 from Redford High School, Detroit. Both are employed at the Ford Motor Co. engineering and research center. The couple plans to marry in the late summer, of 1969.

Loraine Sell Bride Of Mack Harvey

Loraine Carrie Sell became the bride of Mack Everett Harvey in a double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, Friday, Oct. 18.

The Rev. John Walsh officiated at the candlelight rites. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sell of Livonia, was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Harvey of Farmington are parents of the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE selected a white silk organza gown with bouffant skirt, full train and beading trim for the long sleeves and neckline. A double-crown of matching lace and pearls held her elbow-length veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Terri Armstead of Northville was maid of honor. Her empire gown was yellow chiffon and lace, and her matching headpiece was scattered with pearls. Her cascade bouquet

Germany Is New Home For Michael Guenther

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gladstone Guenther are making their home in Wurtzburg, Germany following their marriage in the First Methodist Church of Plymouth.

The bridegroom is stationed there with the U.S. Army.

Mrs. Guenther is the former Sharon Sue Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calhoun, of Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Guenther, also of Plymouth, are her husband's parents.

THE REV. Melbourne Johnson and the Rev. Paul Cargio shared officiating duties, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride's gown was cotton-ottoman with crocheted lace trim, round neckline, long sleeves and detachable train. She carried roses and daisies.

Her sister, Elizabeth Woodward, wore a mint green A-line gown with chiffon sleeves for her role as matron of honor. She carried a basket of mint green carnations and yellow daisies.

BRIDESMAIDS Regina Gruden and Lois Owens, cousins of the bride, Kathy Johnson and Mary McGonagle, wore similar dresses in yellow and also carried baskets of carnations and daisies.
