Livonia Pair Wed In St. Paul

In a recent candlelight ceremony at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Karen Louise Schweppe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schweppe of Osamus Street, Livonia, was married to John Herbert Branch Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Branch, of Ingram Street, Livonia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lace-trimmed gown of mauve tulle with a sash and neckline. Accents, pearls, and iridescent sequins trimmed the bodice as well as the full skirt and hemline.

A bouffant fingertip veil of silk illusion net cascaded from a coronet adorned with lace and pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of white Amazon lilies.

ANNE SCHWEPPE, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a short-sleeved empire gown with bodice of emerald and green chiffon cut-velvet and skirt of mint green crepe, accented in back with a flowing panel of emerald green satin.

The bridesmaids, wearing similar gowns in solid emerald green, were Andrea Schweppe, sister-in-law of the bride, Karen Buckley, Susan Benedict, and Kathleen Jimenez.

The niece and nephew of the bridegroom, Michele Branch and William Branch Jr., acted as flower girl and ring bearer.

WILLIAM BRANCH was best man for his brother. Ushers included Richard Hay, Richard Tanellian, Richard Bolas, and Thomas O'Mell.

The bride's mother wore a dress and coat ensemble of pink brocade with a deep pink carnation corsage and accessories of deep pink. Mrs. Branch chose cherry-colored chiffon with matching accessories and a pale pink wrist corsage.

A reception at 1041 Wyld Golf Club for 220 guests followed the ceremony.

After a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains, the couple will be at home in Westland.

Dr. T. Cappas Will Lecture On Divorce

Norman N. Robbins, president of the Michigan Inter-Professional Association on Marriage, Divorce and Family, Inc., announces a lecture series for the divorced period or persons in the process of obtaining a divorce.

The Adjustment to Divorce lecture series will be held in Temple Israel, 17400 Manderson, Detroit at 7:30 p.m. on four successive Monday evenings beginning Nov. 18 and ending Dec. 4, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The instructor will be Dr. A. Thomas Cappas, clinical member of the Merrill Palmer Institute therapeutic pre-school project. He is primarily engaged as a psychotherapist.

The Adjustment to Divorce course was established to present essential information to persons about to be divorced or who have been divorced, regarding child rearing, remarriage, child support, the working parent, step-parents, visitations, etc.

For pre-registration, those interested may telephone 963-8840.

Farmington LWV Will Discuss Fair Housing

Mrs. Ruby Jean Gould, a member of the New Detroit Committee speakers' bureau, will lead a discussion on fair housing at the meeting of the Farmington League of Women Voters at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20 in Building M of Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus.

Mrs. Gould, 29746 Highmeadow, is fair housing chairman for the LWV chapter.

One of 70 speakers who represent the New Detroit committee before groups over a three-county area, she also plans to show the committee's film, "The Black Eye."

She said she would discuss the federal housing bill and the state housing bill and make a report on the number of local housing units in relation to population.

League members are invited to join the study group and help with the local housing surveys. The meeting is planned as a preparation for an opinion from League chapters on criteria for housing legislation.

All women of voting age are invited to affiliate with the LWV and attend the meeting.
