Brown also was the team's best server Saturday with 39 points, which included nine aces.

Jessi Halliday was a serve-receive star in the back row for Farmington, making the pass on 40 percent of serves.

"A serve receiver makes or breaks a team," Perrin said. "It's the unsung position. In volleyball serve receive wins championships, and she was our serve receiver. I can't over-estimate how much she meant to the overall team performance."

The team spirit award goes to Diana Ebiwara, who was the team's emotional leader and helped an otherwise quiet bunch of players achieve a breakthrough in that regard, according to Perrin.

"She took it upon herself to change the team spirit," he said. "She started getting people going. The team stopped getting down on itself and started playing the way it can play."

The Falcons were placed in the toughest pool in the tournament, according to Perrin, and opened with an 8-15, 6-15 loss to Clarkston.

Farmington split with fellow Western Lakes member Westland John Glenn, 9-15, 15-13. The Falcons earned a third-place finish by splitting with Birmingham Groves, winning the second game, 15-9, after losing the first, 7-15.

Clarkston and Groves were among eight teams in the Gold Division, Farmington one of six in the Silver and Glenn one of six in the Bronze.

The Falcons won their first two matches over White Lake Lakeland, 15-10, 15-7, and Crosstown rival North Farmington in a three-game set, 15-2, 4-15, 15-3.

"The girls won the first game so easily and thought all they had to do was put their shoes on and win (the second)," Perrin said.

"I have to give North full credit. They kept playing hard, and my girls realized 'Gee, you can't just show up and win. No, it doesn't work that way.'"

Groves was second in the tournament, losing to Brighton in the Gold Division final; Brighton beat Central in the semi, and Central beat Clarkston in the quarters. Glenn was runner-up to Walled Lake Western in the Bronze.

Perrin said he questioned his team's desire at the start of the season, but he no longer has any doubts following the Central tourney.

"After that one rally, we could've ended the match right there, and I would've been a very happy coach," he said.

"I'm so proud of their effort. Anybody who watched us make it through the first round, say 'I'd love to coach that team.'"

Raiders 2nd in pool play

North Farmington finished second in its pool at Walled Lake Central, but it lost to Farmington in the first round of the Silver Division playoffs, 2-15, 15-4, 3-15.

In pool play, the Raiders lost their first match to perennial Catholic League power Birmingham Marian, 1-16, 10-15. They proceeded to split with Royal Oak Kimball, 9-15, 15-6, and Forandale, 15-3, 14-16. North tied for second place with those teams but won the tiebreaker based on point differential.

"I was real pleased with the way the girls played," North coach Deb Calanchi said. "We got destroyed in the first game, but we came back and scored 10 points on a very good Marian team."

"We had five overpasses they just slammed down against us, and that was the difference in that game right there."

The Raiders are at a disadvantage against most teams, she added, because they don't have the tall players so many others do.

Nonetheless, North played well in one game in every match and has to be more consistent, according to Calanchi.

"We're young but we need to understand we can beat anybody," she said. "If we got beat in the first game, we came back and proved ourselves in the second."

"We need to start each game like we want to win and, once we beat a team, not let them come back in the second game."

Calanchi liked the way her team rebounded in the second game against Farmington.

"They beat us pretty good in the first game, but we found it within ourselves to prove our point in the second game," she said.

"The girls just didn't carry forward in the third game. As soon as the game started, we fell apart. It's such a game of mental toughness; you can't afford to do that."

Megan Callahan was 33-of-39 hitting with 16 kills to lead the North attack. She also was 13-of-19 serving with six aces.

Melissa Traczyk was 19-of-22 with eight kills and 11 aces. Filinis 22-of-30 with five kills.

Amy Berke was 25-of-31 serving with 22 points and eight aces. Traczyk 18-of-19 with four aces and Filinis 11-of-17 with three aces. The Raiders rated 91 percent on their serving overall.

"We're just not taking advantage of scoring more points off our four assists," Calanchi said. "We're continuing to move forward. We've made a lot of progress in not a whole lot of time."

North was 1-7-2 overall prior to its home opener Wednesday against Westland John Glenn.

Katie Drews, a 6-foot-1 senior, led Stevenson's offensive attack with 33 kills on the day. She also had 16 ace serves and 11 solo blocks.

Setter Kelley Hutchins contributed 61 assist-to-kills, seven aces and seven kills, while Kristina Matheson added 36 digs and six aces.

Other Stevenson statistical leaders included Abbey Schrad, 16 kills and five aces; Ashley Jannulis, 14 kills; Abbey Larson, 12 kills; Dana White, 36 digs and four assists; Ashley Dettoro, five kills and three aces.

Clarenceville falters

In a Metro Conference match Thursday, visiting Harper Woods came away with a 15-13, 15-6 triumph over Livonia Clarenceville.

Faye Croteau led Clarenceville with eight kills, while Laura Meili and Sarah McNeilly added six kills apiece.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

MARLINS WIN GIANT SLALOM

Farmington Hills Mercy won its second straight Mount Brighton Division ski meet Tuesday, this time in the giant slalom.

The Marlins had a team score of 22 points and finished well ahead of runner-up Brighton (20) and Okemos (11).

Mercy had three of the top five skiers with Liz Kujala, Nikki Anderson and Nicole Zaleski finishing in third, fourth and fifth places with combined times of 30.62, 31.26 and 32.03, respectively.

The rest of the team fared well, too. Laura Burek was 10th (32.96), Marcy Godlew 15th (34.38) and Melissa Desautel 28th (37.03).

A total of 54 skiers competed with Birmingham Groves (69), Howell (100), Birmingham Seeholm (103), South Lyon (120), East Lansing (121) and Pinckney (130) sending teams.

Redford Catholic Central tied with Brighton for third place in the boys giant slalom races. Okemos won it with 40 points; South Lyon was second with 45, and CC and Brighton had 46 apiece.

CC's Matt Gable was the individual winner with a two-run time of 27.74. Teammate John Goebel placed ninth with a combined effort of 29.23.

Eric Sullivan was 13th (29.93) for the Shamrocks, Ryan Boudreau 23rd (31.50) and

Bryan Kontry 45th (34.46).

The girls individual winner was Janie Rhoades of Howell in 30.10, and the runner-up was Nikki Smith of Okemos in 30.36.

MECONIS LEADS CC SWIMMERS

Brent Meconis figured in four wins as Redford Catholic Central won a convincing but slow win over Bloomfield Hills Lasher on Tuesday, 1:12-75.

"It was winning ugly," CC coach Jeff Baker said. "We didn't swim particularly well enough for me, but we swam well enough to win. We did have a few kids swim well and drop times, such as Mike Cron dropping four seconds in his 200 freestyle and Dan Jones dropping 1.3 seconds in the 100 freestyle."

Meconis won the 50 freestyle (23.62) and butterfly (56.28) and teamed with Nick Markou, Mike Krusowski and Ed Lesnau in the 200 medley relay (1:44.09), along with Bryant Steele, Kevin Ryan and Lesnau in the 200 freestyle relay (1:33.56).

Other CC winners were Kevin Ryan, 200 freestyle (2:00.04); Andrew Carlin, 1M (2:08.07); Lauren, 100 freestyle (49.61); Tim Ryan, 600 freestyle (5:29.16); and Markou, backstroke (58.31).

CC (2-0) won the 400 freestyle relay with the foursome of Carlin, Joe McGlinn, Marcou and Kevin Ryan.
