Jaycees will honor Lincoln Avery as Citizen of the Year

The Farmington Area Jaycees are proud to announce Lincoln Avery as the recipient of the 2001 Farmington Area Citizen of the Year Award. He will be honored at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 8, at Glen Oaks Country Award. He will be henored at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 8, at Glen Oaks Country Club.

Avery, a resident of Farmington Hills, is being recognized for his longtime volunteer work in the Farmington area.

During his 40 years in the community, Avery has served as an assistant Scout master, president of the Wooddale Elementary School PTA, member of his church session, chairperson of the Farmington Hills Beautification Commission, president of the Farmington/ Farmington Hills Optimist Club.

His work with the beautification commission has led to a number of important enhancements to the community. He was a member of a group that took on the project of constructing butterfly and hummingbird garden in the Contick Center courtyard.

Costick Center courtyard.

His current involvement with the Optimist Club continues to provide benefits and programming for the youth of the area.

The Jayces will recognize Avery's four decades of commitment, dedication and service to the Farmington area community with an award dinner to be beld at 6:30 p.m. Thursday,

Feb. 8, at the Glen Oaks Coun-try Club. The cost for dinner is $38. Those inter-ested in attending should RSVP no later than Jan. 31 with a should be sent to: Farmington Citizen of the Year, Attn: John Mazuchowski, 4520 Rochester Road, No. 4, Royal Oak, MI 48073. For more information please contact John Mazuchowski at (248) 577-0109, Or visit the Farmington Aroa Jaycees Web site at www.fajc. freeservers. com.

Lincoln Avery

Colonial from page A1

and designs created. For finishing touches, black paint was applied.

The ice is so that it (the can) doesn't dent, Joey said.

There also was as detailed model of Graceville with a Town Square in the center, on display in a school corridor.

For student Copy of the center, where he paid one penny for 10 pieces of candy, the experience of going back in time was "awesome. It's really fun, especially working in one of the willages."

Rachel alsa thoroughly enjoyed portraying teacher Mrs. Leads.

"I like it because you get to learn what it was like back."

The like it because you get to learn what it was like back. It was like back.

The like it because you get to learn what it was like in a one-room school. I think it'd be pretty cool.

Helping out during the fair

cool."

Helping out during the fair were retired William Grace displays on a quilt common say-ings used by settlers.

teachers such as Carolyn Danielson and Sandy Rogers.

"It's just a way to get back and keep in touch with the kids," said Danielson, who retired in 1998 after a 35-year career at William Grace. "Teaching in Farmington was such a wonderful experience for me. Rogers, who taught for 34 years at Grace, said she loves coming back to help. "The one part I miss is being with the kids."

us. William Grace Principal Mark William Grace Frincipal State Morawski was impressed with the students' efforts for the fair.
"It was like a small-time Greenfield Village." Winter Fun

Downtown series continues this Saturday

The Civic Theatre in downtown Farmington will be the site for more winter dun, continuing this Saturday at 12:30 p.m.
The annual "Winter Fun Series," sponsored by the Farmington Downtown Development Authority, features 45-minute present to the suitable for all ages. The program runs Saturdays through Feb. 17.
Admission each week is $2 per person, with no charge for infants ago I or under. Following is the remaining schedule:

schedule:

B Jan. 27, Rich Paul,
Family Fun Ventriloquist
Variety Show;
B Feb. 3, The Amazing
Clark Puppet Show;
B Feb. 10, Geri Green, "A Musical Program for Youth of All Ages;
B Feb. 17, Ben Spitzer,
"Comedy, Magic and Juggling," [interference of Jug-

The Civic Theatre is located on Grand River, just east of Farmington Road. For more information, please call the DDA at (248) 473-7276.

You've Lived A Life Of Dignity, Independence And Choice.

At Botsford Commons' Assisted Living Center You Don't Have To Change A Thing.

Announcing the opening of Botsford Commons Assisted Living Center. This innovative facility, located in an historic and newly renovated Albert Kahn-designed. building in Farmington Hills, offers a caring environment for those who need support to maintain daily living routines. Residents receive assistance only with the services needed and requested, encouraging each individual to remain as independent as possible in a safe and secure environment. Center residents retain privacy and comfort in individual apartments while their psychological and social needs are met through a variety of programs and group activities. Easily accessible community living, dining and social areas complement comfortable accommodations with private baths and generous space for treasured personal furnishings. The center features a chapel, clinical offices and a full range of health care services including geriatric assessment programs. As an older adult, you've lived a life that has been one characterized by dignity, independence and choice. It should continue to be. When you choose

Botsford Commons Assisted Living Center, you insure that the next chapter of your life is filled with the same richness of choice and independence to which you are accustomed and that you deserve.

For more information, call 248-426-6903.

28050 Grand River Avenue, Farmington Hills, MI 48336-5933

Boundaries from page A1

school where some Section 8 youngsters already attend.

Find out feasibility for redistricting some apartments north of Grand River, now served by Longacre Elomentary School, and determine impact that might have on potential transfer of Section 8 children.

Make recommendations regarding the feasibility of a boundary change (including legistics and cost) and how that would be implemented.

According to Readler, when Hillside opened in 1990, several boundary areas were recast in order to funnel children to the new building. Also at that time, the enrollment at Wood Creek (lecated near 12 Mile-Inkster roads) was down.

That (Wood Creek) was the obvious school to send them," Readler said. "In 10 years, a lot of things have changed." Parents in Section 8 raised concerns that Wood Creek was rarents in Section 5 raised concerns that Wood Creek was too far away for children to be bused, posing a safety risk.

They'd like the home school to be right there for them, or at least a lot closer," Readler said. If Section 8 is redrawn, it is likely Wood Creek would loss some students. Readler said enrollment at that school probably would then be the subject of another study.

Meanwhile, she said the district is committed to "filling the home school kindergarten first, which would enable Wood Creek to gain back some of the lost enrollment.

HOW TO REACH US

Circulation Nightline	734-591-0500
Classified Advertising
Display Advertising
Home Delivery
Newsroom FAX
Newsroom	248-477-5450
O&E Online* www.observer-eccentric.com	248-901-4718
Photo Reprints	734-591-0500
Reader Comment Line
Sports Nightline	734-953-2104

The Farmington

MAIL DELIVERY

