Northville friends were greatly ocked last week Thursday when became known' that Mrs. E. L. Willis had passed away at her home in Detroit. Her death, following so closely that of her niece, Ernestme Miller, is certainly a terrible blow to their relatives and triends. Mrs. Willis was at the home of her sister. Mrs. Gus Miller, when the latter's home was quarantined for scarlet fever, little Ernestine having the dread disease. After the latter's death Mrs (Willis was allowed to return to her home but the following week she succombed to the disease. Both bodies were brought to Northville and placed in the vault and will will later be buried in one grave. Mrs. Willis, who was 31 years of age was the daughter of Jasper Elliott and Northville was her home until a lew years ago.

Northville had a mad dog scare this week, the coach dog owned by Mrs. John Palmer being affected with rabies. The dog was killed Wednesday after it had bitten Mrs. Palmer, who went to Ann Arbor vesterday for treatment
