FIRST TEAM

Kevin Marlowe, goalie, Stevenson: He made the Coaches Dream Team after a stellar senior season in which he had a 1.71 goals-against average with a .932 save percentage.

"He's a leader," Stevenson coach Ed Shepler said. "He's very reliable, solid both on and off the ice."

"He controlled games. At times he determined how the game was going to go."

Jared Ross, forward, Catholic Central: Ross proved to be the dream player in a team season for a dream team, helping the Shamrocks to an undefeated season, capped with a state championship and Ross becoming the third player in school history to be named Mr. Hockey.

Ross scored 30 goals and had 38 assists. He made the Division I first team and the coaches' Dream Team.

"All season long, Jared put the success of our team, in terms of individual wins and losses, ahead of individual points," said CC co-coach Todd Johnson. "He has dominated the game offensively more than any player we've had in the last six years, and that's a huge statement."

Derek Genrich, defense, Redford CC: Genrich joined Ross on the Division I first team and the Dream Team. A three-year varsity player, Genrich scored back from an injury last season to score three goals and nine assists.

"He led our defense this year physically and emotionally," said Johnson. "He and his family made a lot of sacrifices to send him to CC and all of his hard work really paid off by being captain of the third-straight state championship team."

Joel Garbutt, forward, Franklin: The center made the coach's All-State team in Division II. Garbutt tied for first in Western Lakes Activities Association scoring with 26 points (15 goals, 11 assists).

He had 22 goals and 21 assists overall, including five game-winners, in 76 games over three seasons. Garbutt scored 51 goals and had 55 assists.

"Josh has always been a hard worker," coach Terry Jobbitt said. "He's definitely a team player. He's a kid every coach would love to have on his team."

Jim Spiewak, forward, Redford CC: Spiewak probably doesn't know he was selected for this honor. After CC's season ended, he signed with the USHL's Cedar Rapids Roughriders.

"He will be a Division I player after a year of junior hockey," said Johnson. "He might be the hardest-working player off ice in the last six years with how hard he works in the weight room and keeping his grades up. He made a tough decision between junior hockey and his senior year in high school and he figured that it was best for him to come back to CC for the season. It placed a lot of pressure on him at times, but he handled it well and was rewarded with his decision."

Spiewak, an all-state selection the last two years, scored 17 goals and had 23 assists during the season.

Brett John, forward, Catholic Central: John was the second-leading scorer for the Shamrocks and also earned a spot on the Division I all-state team. A two-year member of the varsity, John scored 29 goals and 23 assists this season.

"He's a prototypical power forward who can not only score, but punish opposing players along the boards and in front of the net," said Johnson. "He's going to have a really good hockey career and a good chance at playing Division I in college."

Rory Cesarz, forward, Churchhill: This senior left wing made the All-State team. He scored six game-winning goals and had a high of plus-28 on the ice.

"He was at his best in our biggest games," coach Pete Mazzoni said. "He can play the physical game but is probably our quickest forward. He's a pure goal-scorer."

Cesarz had 15 goals and 10 assists in 26 games.

Chris Garbutt, goaltender, Franklin: He set a school record with seven shutouts, including four in a row, and posted a 1.00 goals-against average.

Garbutt capped his career by being selected to Division II All-State team. He had a 2.19 goals-against average with a save percentage of .900.

"This year he took a big step forward," Jobbitt said. "He became an excellent strong-team player and took the blame for goals that were not his fault. He kept us in games and won the big ones for us."

Sean Genrich, defense, Redford CC: Genrich, a three-year player, was selected to the all-state first team with five goals and 13 assists.

"His first two years in the program, he was a role player and worked hard last summer to be a key component," said Johnson. "We gave him an opportunity to be on the first power-play unit, and he did a nice job."

Bill McSween, defense, Redford CC: McSween was one of the highest scoring defensemen in the state with 15 goals and 25 assists for 40 points. He earned a spot on the all-state first team and led Redford to a conference title.

"He covered his area well and saw all of the ice," said RU coach John Gumbleton. "He's not physical but can take control in the corners and in front of the net. He doesn't hesitate to rush the ice and get in deep. Sometimes, an offensive defenseman isn't good in his own end, but he's good in both ends."

Bobby Zagata, forward, Stevenson: The senior center was called "the best forward in the area" by his coach, Ed Shepler.

"He's a gamebreaker," Shepler said.

"He has very good speed and is well above average talent-wise. He can turn it on when the team needs it."

Zagata scored 25 goals and had 20 assists for the season.

Aaron Jakubowski, forward, Churchhill: Only a junior, Jakubowski was captain of his team. His plus-minus was a positive 19; he had nine goals and 10 assists. "He can win faceoffs," Mazzoni said. "He can go in the corners and the people up. He's the best two-way player."
