Anna Muir was in goal for North. The Western goal was the result of the Raiders playing back on their heels defensively, according to Russell.

"We were letting them send a lot of through balls without challenging the kicker," he said. "I thought we played better second-half defense, although we allowed Western to get more shots on us than we did Churchill.

"The way I look at it we start pressing offensively, and that leaves us open defensively; so we have to work on balancing that out."

Joyce Chung played a good game on defense, as did Michele Boothroyd and Melissa Navas, Russell said.

"Joyce jumps into the offense very well but mostly wins all kinds of 50-60 balls in the middle," he said. "Whenever we're down we can count on Joyce to give us a boost back up."

Michele not only played well on defense, but she delivered the ball to the midfield very cleanly and started the offense, especially in the second half.

Though she didn't figure in the scoring, forward Sarah Jakab played her best game and was an asset on offense, he added.

"She put a lot of pressure on the net, and she created opportunities that led to goals," Russell said.

The Raiders are 3-2 overall and 1-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

"I really love what I see," Russell said. "The girls have tremendous spirit; they work hard and play hard."

"The other night one of the refs said it was the best he's seen us play. The program is right where I like it, and we're looking to go up from here."

"I'd like to have a couple opportunities back to be 6-0, but you have to take the good with the bad."

FARMINGTON 5, FRANKLIN 1: The teams were tied at halftime, 1-1, but the host Falcons were clear the winners in the second half Wednesday.

Saints undefeated 2 straight seasons

BASKETBALL

Sorrows won its own Thanksgiving tournament, the St. Clair Shores St. Margaret Christmas Tournament and the CYO West Suburban No. 1 Division.

The Saints were 10-0 in their division, which included Livonia St. Edith, Novi Holy Family, Farmington Hills St. Fabian, Redford St. Mary's and Dearborn Divine Child.

Four players have been members of the team both seasons: Alyssa Risk, Kathleen Howard, Kate McKenna and Courtney Van Antwerp.

Unlike the seventh- and eighth-grade teams, there is no post-season, citywide CYO tournament for the fifth and sixth graders.

Sorrows defeated St. Edith to win the Thanksgiving tournament, 23-9, and the host school in the final game of the St. Margaret tournament, 28-9.

The Saints concluded the season by winning another tournament at Livonia Ladywood with a 23-12 victory over Novi St. James.

"Obviously, we had a great bunch of girls who always came to play and wanted to learn more about basketball every day," coach Risk said.

Risk, who has coached the Saints for six years, attributed the team's success to the fact it played great defense.

"Defense wins games and that's been the case for us the past couple years," he said. "The girls always played their hardest. Above all, we had fun and that's important, too."

a great defensive play and in between we didn't make any mistakes, I'm excited and happy about that."

struck out two batters in the seventh.

Kelly Taylor, Merrill DeRose, Schrock and Abbey Cleland had one hit apiece for the Hawks, who are 1-2 overall. Jacqui Smylie had an RBI on a ground-out.

CHURCHILL 15, FARMINGTON 0: Ashley Crawley, Natalie Kieger and Sarah Carter knocked in three runs each Wednesday, as host Livonia Churchill (5-0) blanked the visiting Falcons (0-1) in a four-inning mercy.

Carly George added two hits for the Chargers, including an RBI triple. Churchill scored six runs in the first — all after two were out — along with four each in the second and third innings, followed by a run in the fourth.

Churchill pitchers Meghan Mialak (four innings) and Stacy Newcomb (one inning) combined on a three-hitter. Mialak fanned 10 Falcons.

Losing pitcher Amy Paquette allowed eight hits and nine walks.
