

Huskies make gain in MSHL

The Huskies moved up among the leaders with their second win in three Metro Summer Hockey League games.

The Huskies defeated the Whalers, 8-3, Monday at the Suburban Training Center in Farmington Hills.

Phil Pietila had a hat trick plus an assist as his team held a 2-1 lead after the first period and a 6-3 edge after two.

Aaron Kiilunen and Josh Daavetila scored two goals each to help the Huskies. Trent Daavetila notched the other goal for his team and also had an assist.

B.J. Gaylord had two assists while John Pietila, Josh Moyses, Brian Mexico, Ted Sturos, Joe Kondratke (Canton) and Matt Hennigar had one assist each.

The Whalers (1-2) got goals from Kirk Pietila, Mike Crowley (Canton) and Pat Shannon while Darrin Silvester (Plymouth) had two assists.

HOCKEY

Travis Miller started in goal for the Huskies and was replaced by Rick Marnon at 7:35 of the second period. Art Baker (Canton) went the distance in goal for the Whalers.

BULLDOGS 4, SPARTANS 4: Chris Powroznick (Redford) scored with 1:50 left in the third period Monday to salvage the tie for the Spartans.

The Bulldogs carried a 3-1 lead into the final period only to see the Spartans (0-2-1) come back on goals by Aaron Jakubowski (Livonia) and Brandon Thom (Livonia) within a span of 32 seconds to deadlock the score.

Troy Milam dissolved the tie with a goal for the Bulldogs (1-1-2) with 3:40 to play.

Ryan Lukiewski (Canton), Jamie Milam and Eric Evans also scored for the Bulldogs. Jamie Milam, Matt York and Jason Baile each had assists in the game.

John Maly (Livonia) scored a first-period goal for the Spartans and also assisted on Aaron Jakubowski's marker. Jakubowski (Livonia) also had an assist in the game.

Jacob Archer (Livonia) was in the nets for the Spartans while Matt Swenson was in goal for the Bulldogs.

Dale Swims had a pair of assists for the Spartans while Thom and Jason Turri (Livonia) had one assist.

LAKERS 2-4, WILDCATS 4: Five goals in each of the first two periods decided this game.

Missa Vigilante, Bryan Marshall (Livonia) and Brian Jardine each had a hat trick Sunday while Josh Shuryan, Jim Wheaton (Plymouth), Tony Keshlavian (Plymouth), Sean Smith (Livonia Churchhill) and Scott Curtin (Redford) each scored a goal apiece.

The Lakers (2-1) got five assists from Brian Jardine, four from Josh Shuryan, three apiece from Marshall and Nick Jardine plus two from Mike Vigilante and Shuryan. Wheaton, Smith, Matt Frick and Steve Sharp each registered one assist.

The Wildcats (0-3) got a goal plus two assists from Rob Peury and a goal from Josh Wiegand, Kirk Gurney and Darrin Fisher. Andy Weidenbach and Kevin Matejko each had assists.

John Picolo started in goal for the Lakers and was replaced by Lanny Jardine at 7:02 of the second period while Brandon Tucker was in goal for the Wildcats.

BRONCOS 7, BULLDOGS 7: Third-period goals by Dan Cook (Livonia) and York earned the Bulldogs the tie.

The Broncos held a 5-4 lead Sunday after the first period but the Bulldogs tallied the only goal of the third period to gain the deadlock.

Troy Milam scored twice for the Bulldogs (3-1-1) while Baile had a goal plus two assists. Ian Smith and Ryan Hoeller (Livonia) had a goal and an assist each.

Jamie Milam and Todd Kessler (Livonia) each had an assist for the Bulldogs.

Nick Smith and Scott Marlinga scored two goals and added three assists apiece for the Broncos (1-2-1) while Keith Townsend had two goals and one assist.

John Fritz (Plymouth) notched a goal for the Broncos while Kevin Bushey and John Murnahan (Westland) each had an assist. Rich O'Connell had two assists.

Yankees win Mustang Division

Baseball champions: The NFWB Yankees went 11-1-2, finished with the best record among 16 Mustang Division (ages 9-10) teams and captured the NFWB Division A regular-season championship in a season that ended the week of June 11. The members of the Yankees team are (bottom row, left to right) Mark Lewandowski, Josh Schwartz, Ben Wasserman, Aaron Wasserman, Todd Szlamkiewicz; (middle row) Brett Lubanski, Derek Thiel, Perry Ahn, Ian Grant, Andrew Nonahal, Aaron Roberts; (top row) assistant coaches Paul Lubanski, Mark Lewandowski and Paul Thiel and manager Tim Roberts. Schrock throws 1-hit shutout

Kristin Schrock pitched a one-hit victory in the first game of a softball doubleheader Tuesday evening for the Leo's Coney Island Hornets.

Schrock, who will be a senior at Farmington Harrison High School this year, struck out 14 and walked one as the Hornets beat the Livonia Red Sox, 1-0.

The Hornets are 1-1 in the Girls Incredibly Fast-Pitch League after losing the second game to the Red Sox, 9-5.

In the first game, Schrock had a no-hitter until the seventh inning. The lone walk also was issued in the last inning.

The only thing marring an otherwise perfect game to that point was a dropped third strike in the second inning that allowed the Red Sox their only baserunner prior to the seventh.

The Hornets scored their run in the third inning when Liz Ghannam walked and reached home plate on Abbey Cleland's RBI single. Cleland and Erin Held one each as the Hornets were limited to four total.

The second game only went six innings due to a time limit.

Jenny Musick had two hits and scored two runs for Leo's. Liz Taylor reached base twice with a hit and an error, and also scored two runs. Kristen Kluka had an RBI single. Beth Leeb was the losing pitcher.
