Botsford honors doctors

Each year, Botsford General Hospital honors members of its professional staff for their outstanding accomplishments.

In conjunction with the teaching hospital's formal graduation ceremony at Laurel Manor in Livonia last month, the following members of the professional staff received these honors:

Alvin Yarrows Award - Interns and residents present scientific papers each year. Clinical research and case studies are a partial indicator that distinguishes the excellent teaching program at Botsford General Hospital. Winners are selected based on originality, scientific merit and literary skill.

■ First place: William B. Lutes, D.O., for Pain Response Using a Hematoma Block with and without Buffered Anesthetic in Fracture Reduction

■ Second place: Mindy K. Lane, D.O., for Radiographic Indicators of Breast Malignancy: Does Quadrant Predict Outcome

■ Third place: Justin Sherley, D.O., and D. Scott Devinney, D.O., for Evaluation of the Intramedullary Hip Screw (IMHS) in Intertrochanteric and Subtrochanteric Fractures

Distinguished Service Award - This award is given to the physician who has given above and beyond to the profession, the hospital, the patients, or the community at large. Harold Margolis, D.O., was selected as the recipient for this honor.

Teacher of the Year Awards: Botsford General Hospital has an educational mission to train osteopathic physicians and other caregivers who will enhance their professions, achieve both professional and personal growth, and most importantly, improve the health status of the people they serve. This year the following physician-academics were honored for their contribution to Botsford's educational mission:

■ Internal Medicine - Michael Berkovic, D.O., and Armen Korkkigan, D.O.

■ Family Medicine - George Sawabini, D.O., and Keith Tobin, D.O.

■ Surgery - Anthony Schwartz, D.O.

Twenty-five Years of Service Awards - Robert Cierniega, D.O., Robert Dock, D.O., William Prechel, D.O., Steven Roth, D.O., Ted Schwartzenfeld, D.O., and Marshall Shapiro, D.O.

The Botsford Health Care Continuum is an integrated system of care that includes Botsford General Hospital, the Botsford Physician Network, Community Emergency Medical Service, the Botsford Continuing Care Corporation and the Botsford Center for Health Improvement.
