

OBITUARIES

RICHARD N. ARVO
Services for Richard N. Arvo, 79, of Novi, were held Aug. 8 at First Church of the Nazarene in Northville with the Rev. Dr. Carl Leth officiating. Mr. Arvo was born April 15, 1922, in Rousseau, Mich., and died Aug. 4 at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

He was a World War II veteran and served as a staff sergeant in the U.S. Army Air Corps during the war as well as an airplane armorer tuff gunner in the North Africa. He earned a degree in journalism and worked as a printer for JAM Handy and Ross Roy in advertising before starting his own company, Celprint Inc., which supplied the auto companies with numerous educational slides and advertising.

He was a member of the FFW and the Elks in Livonia and also volunteered as a Boy Scout Leader and Master. In 1978, Mr. Arvo served as district president (for the State) for the Exchange Club where he had been a member for 35 years. He received numerous awards in the Exchange Club including the Book of Golden Deeds by the Livonia Exchange Club for volunteer work and "Exchange of the Year" in 2000.

He was an usher at the First Church of the Nazarene in Northville and also volunteered his time by driving senior citizens around for the city of Novi. Mr. Arvo's favorite game was golf. He also loved horse shoes, fishing, camping, swimming, sailing and doing yard work. He also enjoyed playing chess, cards and doing magic tricks for his grandchildren.

Mr. Arvo is survived by his wife, Mary; son, Tom (Carol), Bill (Michelle), Roger (Linda), Chuck (Mai), Scott (Connie) Griffin, Curtis (Sharon) Griffin and Bradley (Meelody) Griffin; daughters, Linda (Jim) Braddock and Shari (Paul) Jackson; 17 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. He is preceded in death by his first wife, Mildred.
